HISTORY OF SPENCERVILLE INDIANA

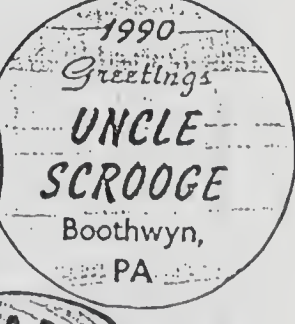

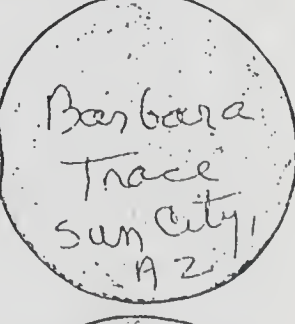

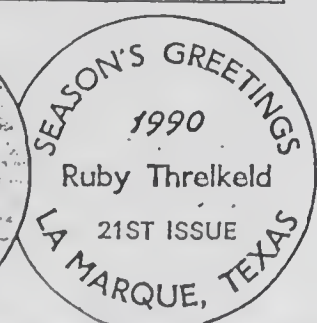

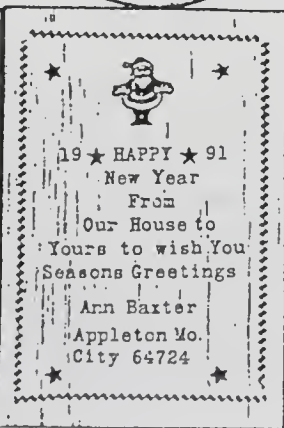

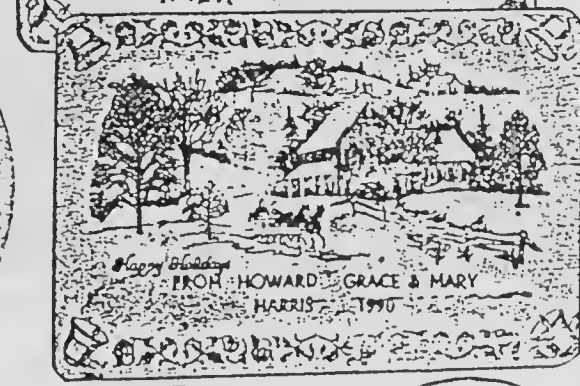

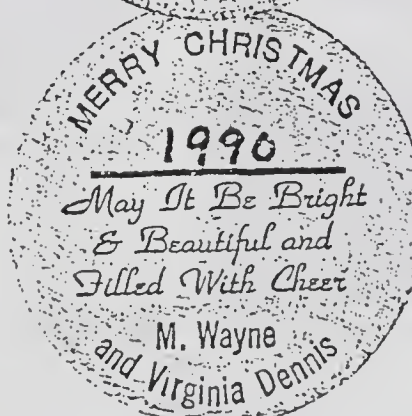

Spencerville was first known as a river settlement on the big bend of the St. Joe. It has been identified as the first settlement in DeKalb County, begun in 1828. Early travel was by river due to many swamps in the area. Its first settler, Thomas Lovel Yates, came up the river from Fort Wayne, selected his land and finally filed his claim at the U.S. land office in Fort Wayne on September 13, 1833. By the end of 1833, six families were located in and within a half mile of the town. The first store was established in 1838 in the cabin of Joseph Peas on the river bank. In 1839, the settlement had an official post office. By 1840, a dam had been constructed across the river and a saw mill was operating. In 1841, the first church was organized. In March, 1842, the platted plan of Spencerville was filed and the town was officially identified. The town had been named by Mr. Dawson in honor of his brother in law, Col. John Spencer, at that time Collector of Monies for the U.S. land office in Fort Wayne. In 1843, Dr. Jonas Emanuel settled in as the first doctor. The grist mill was operating in 1845. In 1853, the first "free" school was in operation, that was taught by Asa Fletcher. In 1873, the covered bridge was built. The first gravel road from Fort Wayne to Spencerville was constructed around 1895. The first high school was built in 1910. Business in Spencerville have included: dry goods store, tin shop, drug store, hardware, furniture, grocery, stock barn, car dealer, saloon, hotel, gas station, tool and die, bank, cabinet making, blacksmith, telephone exchange, beauty shop, restaurant, meat market, wagon shop, shoe shop, hat shop, tile and brick yard, railroad station. Professional services have included: undertaker, doctor, lawyer, veterinary, teacher. The Spencerville hall was constructed in 1920. It burned down January 31, 1970 and through the cooperative efforts of the citizens and the surrounding community, a new community building was constructed in the fall of 1971.

A covered Bridge Festival was started by the town of Spencerville, IN. in 1973 the 100th anniversary of the bridge and were held untill 1986 pictured on the cover is the last wood issued for the Festival. Denver Howard

WHY NOT INCLUDE WOODEN NICKEL ON YOUR WOOD?

A suggestion by Jerry Remick "Let's get back to the basics and include some form of denomination on the round and flat woods that we have made. It can be 5¢, 5 Cents, Nickel, One Flat Nickel or other denomations as 1¢ 2¢, 10¢, 25¢ ect. ect.

 PRESIDENTS MESSAGE ***

As I'm writing before the holidays I wish that you all have a Merry Christmas and also have a Healthy, Happy New Year.

I like to thank all the members that sent me cards- letters and wood. It put a smile on my face as I think it was so kind of so many doing this. I never missed hardly a day of receiving so many nice wood and I was ashamed I did not get any this year. Yet the way that I couldn't do much. I had a lot of health problems this year and still having them. Must have more test done after the holidays. Yet all those cards and letters helped me thru some rough days. I even recieved a big box of home made cookies from Wendell and Thelma Morningstar the founders of IOWMC and DWMC. It seems every day I'd go to the door a surprise.

I even recieved a nice cake in the mail for my Christmas birthday. So it made my day as few people remember my birthday. Even I call it a forgotten day but this year it turned out somewhat different and really put a smile on my face.

Sorry folks if I didn't answer all your letters but I just couldn't but maybe slowly I will catch up. I did get a good idea for a wood for the convention and I'll do that as soon as I can. Recieving some beautiful woods gave me some nice ideas. I will write an order in early this time as none were issued in 1990.

I want to thank Al Bonesio for the nice write up- What he didn't know was I landed back in the hospital that night. Thanks Al.

Don't forget if you want to run for office Please Write to - Herman Krajewski, P O BOX 44, Rockville CT 06066. His address on the membership list is all wrong, so please use the address above. You can write to me to. As long as we hear from you is what we want to hear. You can run for any office that you want to as all are open this year.

We really need good officers that will work for the club. Please don't become an officer in name only as we need some good working officers. The call for officers is Feb. 1st so I hope you answer this call. Remember if we don't get any one to run for jobs we will have to get nominations from the meeting in Chicago. We really need some good officers.

I don't know how many will come to Chicago but I hope many will be there. Its the 100th anniversary of the ANA so a lot will be going on. It will be nice to see you all there. So start saving for this now.

All you new members and some of our older ones out there lets hear from you. Write a short story about yourself, hobbies, jobs and family. Send a picture of yourself to. We can use this item on the front page. Note this is the first issue not containing a portrate in many years. Write to Sally Kirka, 116 Oak St., Manchester, CT. 06040-6140.

Also if you have a good story on wood why not tell all of us on this. The Editor can use some good stories. You may have a good article for us all. Remember we need some good articles. So why not help our Editor out. By the way Happy Birthday to our Editor whom reported he is a official senior after recieving his medicare card. May he enjoy many good years.

I was sorry to see so many of our members that are sick. God Bless them all. I still will say, write those cards or letters to our sick members. That helps a lot as I know. Remember it could be you next. So send those cards and letters and put a smile on their face. A prayer for them helps also.

A Happy New Year to all our members and may you all have many more good years. I'm hoping my luck changes for the coming year. I really think it did change to get so many cards and letters from you members. So again Happy New Years and may God Bless You All.

SINKING OF THE STONE FLEET IN CHARLESTON HARBOR

On December 20, with the fleet in position the order was given to remove the plugs and start sinking the ships. The crews of the sinking ships were evacuated to the steamer Cahawver. Another fourteen ships were sunk on January 14th.

The whole plan turned out to a great fiasco as the tangled mass of ships sank deep in the mud at the bottom of the harbor, never to stop a single Confederate vessel. The only damage done was to the whaling industry which was hardly in a position to absorb the loss of so many of its whalers. Even worse was the loss of subsequent whalers to Confederate cruisers, which, in retaliation, started to hunting down Yankee whalers. The cruiser She Shenandoah alone destroyed twenty-nine of New Bedford whalers in the Arctic waters, almost New Bedford's entire whaling fleet. The Shenandoah continued raiding whalers in the Arctic for weeks after peace was declared because it took so long for the news of the surrender to reach the Arctic. The loss of vessels to Confederate raiders during and after the Civil War amounted to almost three million dollars. Drawing from Harper's Weekly January 11, 1862.

LOVE OF HOBBY TURNS INTO LIFETIME CAREER

Gene Nelson IOWMC # 1711

I have always loved photography and for most of my life, prior to becoming a professional photographer, it had been a hobby. This hobby was excersized to quite an extent during several years' service in the military. Many of these years were spent in Europe, where excellent photography equipment was rather inexpensive and afforded me the opportunity to aquire a great deal of needed equipment.

In November of 1965 I returned to Mobile after being discharged from Viet Nam. Life so many others under those circumstances, I found myself with the task of gaining employment and trying to build a new life.

At that time, not a great many women worked outside the home, and both door-to-door sales and home photography were booming enterprises. My mother, Virginia and I decided to pursue this effort together. We both put in many days of long hours selling photography coupons door-to-door, and then returning a few days later by appointment to take the photographs. Once taken, proofs were delivered to the person at a later date for their selection, and the finished portraits they ordered were mailed to them. The customer never had to leave their home! We also worked at other jobs when we could - sometimes until very late at night and almost every week-end.

After the first few years, our name had gotten around, and we felt as though we were working "around the clock" in an effort to get to everyone. By that time, we had branched out to other cities, with a team of several other sales people and photographers. We had begun to do photography work from Charleston to Oklahoma and from New Orleans to the mountain towns of Tennessee.

In 1967, we (Nelson's Photography) settled into our first studio building - at 616 Holcombe Ave. We now offered not only portrait photography, but also reproductions, wedding coverage, black and white work and framing.

In July of 1979, we moved to our present location on Little Flower Ave. between Airport Blvd. and Goverment St., and the name of the business was changed from Nelson-Prestige Color Portraits to Nelson's Photography.

Many changes have taken place for us during the last 25 years, just as changes have taken place in all fields of photography. Customers have ever changing needs, which we have made every attempt to meet. Over the years, our backgrounds, props, and services have taken many different forms. Some things have remained the same. We still take photographs in customers home and still strive to give people "old fashioned" service. During certain circumstances, we have even - still - delivered the customer's finished portraits to their home. Our customers have been wonderfully loyal to us over the years. Now, as we celebrate our 25th anniversary in this business, we see young men and women who were photographed by us as babies, bringing us THEIR babies now to be photographed. Some of our "babies" call on us now to photograph their weddings. It is not uncommon for young parents to come by to order reprints from negatives we've stored of baby photos taken of them years before.

CONTINUED - All of this makes us feel pretty old - it also makes us feel pretty good, because we know by this loyalty that we must have done something of lasting value.

We want to thank all of those wonderful customers who have made it possible for our business to grow and to remain all these years, and we want to also welcome all our new customers who are making it possible for our services to continue to grow and prosper.

Aside from my business, I must ad that the hobby of collecting Wooden Money and Tokens has has been found very rewarding and the friendship with others in the hobbies is Great.

(Editors Note: Gene took many photos of members attending our meeting in Pittsburg, PA and sent prints to most all, as well as to Toni Cichy for the IOWMC log books)

What is Moose Money ?

My family tries to give me something that I collect for a Christmas gift. I collect so much its hard to say what they will get me. Yet I like most any thing given me.

My nephews always seem to look for things of Numismatic interest. So I have some nice things from them. I was given a dollar bill radio which I like very much. Then I have all kinds of banks made with money. The best bank I like is the wood bank with a stack of silver dollars. If its made of wood I like it better. Yet when asked where they get these things, my nephew's tell me they look for them on their trips. If they see something I'd like they get it it. Yet asked where they got it, they forgot.

I remember one year I got a few different wooden coins about 12 inches round. This time I was given an Indian penney and a Lincoln penney. I know I also got the silver dollar and a half dollar. Well I was happy to get all this as I have a nice collection of all of this.

This Christmas I got a nice surprise as I was given a wooden reserve note, a 100 dollar bill called Moose Money. Its really beautiful bill. Its 8½ " long 3 5/8 " wide and ½ " thick. It looks almost as a real 100 dollar bill with a few changes on both sides. They do have a picture of a Moose head in the middel called Franklin. The back of the bill is just as nice as the front, only it has a big Moose standing in the middle and a few other changes.

I was real pleased to get this bill as nice to add to my collection. Yet when I asked my nephew where did he get this wooden bill as I sure would like to get a few more. Again he said that he forgot where he bought it as this was bought in their travel this summer. So even in the summer they were thinking of me. Yet where they got it they don't know. I asked how much it cost and they forgot that to. They said when they see something I'd like they get it then and there. Well I sure would like to get a few more. Its real heavy and printed in brown ink.

Oh they also got me a 2" round wood that has a spicy smell to it. This must have perfume on it and gives off a nice smell. This is called Moose Money one (scent). This is ¼" thick.

Then when I was up to this nephews house I saw a piece of wooden money hung up. So I asked my nephew what that was. It was another wooden 100 dollar bill but much smaller as it was 4½" by 2". Anyhow before I came home I was given that wood for my collection to. It was just to nice to leave there. This was almost like the other issue but in mini size.

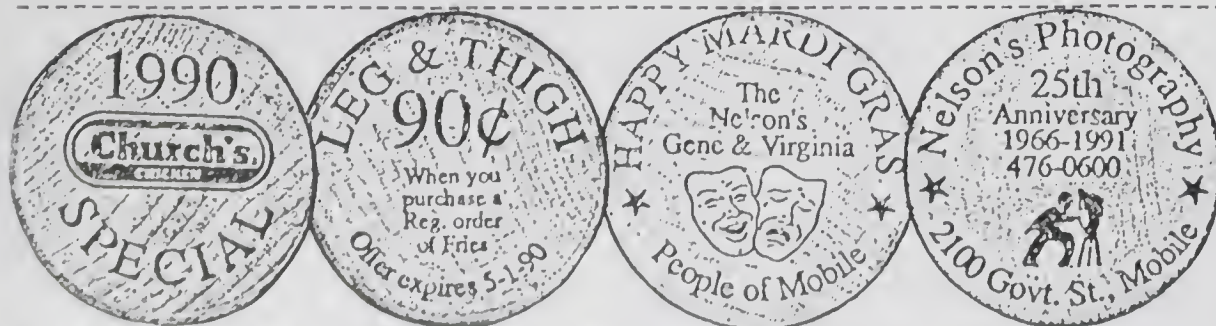

Now to hunt for that Moose 100 dollar bill. I will write to one place and see what I can do. If I get more I'll be lucky but I'll keep on trying and see what I can do. As I really want a few more. I know to mail one it may take more then 3 stamps to mail as real heavy.

Oh yes I forgot to add I still recieved a box of a Londans Reserve Note 100 dollar bill box of candy to. Its the first I've seen of this. In the middle it has, The London Mint but candy was made by Harry London in Ohio.

So Christmas came and went but at least I have three different wooden money I never expected to own. So Santa was good to me this year, or 1990. These were all different so I had to write about them.

Oh on the one dollar bill radio when the radio is on Georges mouth moves as if he's doing the talking. Just another thing to add to my collection. A hobby is what you make of it and I really do enjoy my hobbies.

I'd like to say thanks to all those kind people who sent me cards and letters as I'm still getting a few. Its very well appreciated by me. I didn't expect all so it made me feel good and put a smile on my face.

How ever just two days before Christmas we had a death in the family. So this made a sad Christmas for us all. The funeral was held after Christmas. We were lucky we had the funeral before the big snow storm hit us that night. I could not make the furneral but my brother filled me in on what all went on.

As to the wood I hope to have made, I got some ideas from the wood I've recieved for the Christmas holiday. So now working on an idea I would like to have made. I already have my die made for an elongated coin to go with my wood. As soon as I feel up to it I'll roll the coins out. I've been making flat wood with elongated coins on them for a good 15 years or longer. Now hard to get the flat post card size wood. Yet I'll give it a try. On post card size woods I have them stamped and cancelled at various events or special holidays.

As sick as I was on Dec. 31st I recieved a call from Canada wishing me a belated Happy Birthday. It took me with such a surprise, but I en-oyed it. Yet after I hung up I wondered if I was dreaming this as it was my first call from Canada. So people are very nice. Also my first card and wood recieved in December was from Canada to.

So remember if you hear of a sick member or some one with lots of problems send them a card or letter. Remember it could be you that could be sick next. Remember God loves us all and gives this friendship free to all of us.

Remember folks nominations are now open for all officers. If you want to run for an job please let us know at once. Please don't take a job in name only as we need workers. Some when they get voted in the club never hears a word from them again. So lets get some good workers in, the jobs are not hard and we need good workers. The nominating Chairman is Herman Krajewski, Box 44, Rockville CT. 06066. Do not use the box number on the membership list as it is all wrong. You can also write to me and I'll pass the word along to Herman. I think we have two members to run for office. So lets get some more and hope we get enough to run for all the needed offices. Other wise we will have to nominate and vote them in at the meeting. Ballots will be sent out if enough interest is shown . Please write soon.

Don't forget if you are going to order a wood made for this special ANA 100th anniversary and IOWMC annual meeting, do so now. Don't wait until the last minute. There are many of our members who make nice wood so order that wood.

As far as I know our meeting will be on a Saturday about 10 P.M. I already heard from the ANA and will write to them to keep that day for our meeting.

Write those articals to our Editor as we need some good articales for Chips about wood. Also we need members portraits for the front pages. So lets hear from some new and some old that have never sent in a portrait on your self. Tell us a little about yourself, hobbies and send us a picture also of yourself if possible to be used with the item. I wrote to many but don't get any answers. Yet lets help our club and keep our newsletter going.

Hoping you all had a nice Valentime Day. If you made a special wood, send a sample to our Editor for Chips. Also if the issue is for sale or trade that other members can have it for their collection. So Happy Valentine's Day to all of you. God Bless You All.

WOODEN IT BE NICE --- by John R. Burnes

Dave Morice (A&S '69) either had a mother who forgot to tell him the facts of life, or he wasn't listening when she did - he keeps taking wooden nickels. Bundles of them. Thousands of them. As if the coin return on a fairy tale pay telephone got stuck and deluged the bystander with booty.

Morice, a naturally curious teacher and doctoral student at the University of Iowa, has something to do with the flow. Three years ago, half curious and half bored, he concocted an idea that finds him eagerly collecting specially-decorated wooden nickels. It's his Wooden Nickel Art Project.

The project is simply this-he gives, or mails, a blank wooden nickel to anyone who asks (and many who don't) with the simple instructions that they draw or paint anything they like on one side and sign the reverse. Then, he displays the results. Think of it as a carnival attraction run by the Louvre.

"A few years ago, I had some wooden nickels printed up for a poetry marathon I was involved with," the soft-spoken Johnny Nickelseed explained. "I was watching M*A*S*H* in late '87, and one of those nickels was lying around. I scraped one side blank and carved a picture of my wife Milagros' face into the reverse. Then it occurred to me that if I had a lot of wooden nickels, I could carve all sorts of images.

"But I didn't really want to do all of them myself, and I thought it would be interesting to see what other people would do. So I ordered a thousand of them from this local company and started passing them out to friends I'd meet on the street or the bus, sometimes total strangers. I asked them to draw on the one side and sign and date the other." That was a thousand nickels ago. A little while into the project he saw stars: He started mailing his nickels to well-known celebrities-and he got responses, too.

"When I send the celebrities their blank nickels, I put a code number on the return envelope. The only one I got back with a wooden nickel inside my envelope that had absolutely nothing else on it or with it was from Brooke Shields. So I figured, well, I guess this is her submission."

Does he have any favorites ? ?

"Walter Lanz sent me the rough sketch of Woody Woodpecker he did before he drew him on the nickel. I figured he could draw Woody in his sleep, but I guess not. Another one of my favorites is from (Italian film director) Federico Fellini. That's a great one. Pollster George Gallup wrote me back and asked for one for his brother and another for his son. "I also like (novelist) Kurt Vonnegut's self-portrait. And John Erlichman's drawing. It's a little frightening. I tried to figure out how it related to Watergate!"

CONTINUED  Of course celebrities could cheat - they could hire someone really talented to complete their nickels for them. Sad to say, that thought crossed this writer's mind in relation to Lee Iacocca's Statue of Liberty submission. "No," Morice responded. "I've heard that he's a pretty talented artice."

There are some coincidences related to the project. Morice recieved the nickel from Stan Musial the same day he recieved a note from Ted Williams' secretary saying Williams could not sign because he was under contractual obligations to sign only for a certain company. And Morice received nickels from Don Ho and Bette Midler, both inscribed with "Aloha," on the same day, but they were mailed from different states.

Some meanings of the drawings are a bit obfuscated, to say the least. "Dudley Moore's has always confused me. What is P.T.O.? Praise The Onions? If anybody knows, maybe they could tell me. And Edward Asner, with 'fleas.' I guess that's a cat scratching itself. (George) Kilby is the inventor of the microchip; that explains his. And the one by Shimon Peres, it says "Shalom." But at the first exhibit, I had it upside down. Somebody called me and corrected me."

Some meanings are all too clear. "(Science fiction writer) Harlan Ellison's nickel came back, saying: "This is one big F-----g dopey waste of time." I sent him a catalog, saying that it wasn't. He changed his mind and sent me a nice letter saying that it was indeed art."

Of course no submission could be as disturbing as the self-portrait by Charles Manson. It has its own story. "just receiving Manson's surprised me. I sent a nickel to him, Sirhan Sirhan and John Hinckey. He's the only one of those three that returned something. His return address had a swastika over "Manson," so I couldn't make it out at first. "He sent a letter and two drawings on the back of my cover letter to him. I sent him a nickel, so I assume it was probably confiscated by the guards. His pictures are truly frightening, and I don't understand the inscriptions. How was I supposed to reply to him? 'How's the family?'"

Since several contributions can be loosely described as multi-media, Morice's art project goes well beyond an exhibit of curios. He points out that many of the artists tried sincerely to convey a message through the nickels.

Being a harbinger of those messages doesn't come cheap. "It's only supported through my own money. And it's probably cost over $2,000 by now.

"After I had received Willie Mays' nickel, I got a letter from his businessman. He said that he didn't think the nickel had been done by Willie Mays, and he was concerned that the signature had been lifted off something else and put on the nickel. I don't retouch any of the nickels I receive. "The businessman wanted to know if I was making any money off the catalog. Of course I can show a healthy loss from it."

In addition to publishing a bare-bones catalog containing xeroxes of the coins (remember, he's on a budget), he's exhibited the coins at several Iowa City libraries and banks, and his collection has been featured in local papers as well as Numismatic News, the national coin paper. He's talked to several national publishers about the project; none has shown an interest just yet. But that's okay. "It's just a fun thing to do, that's it," he said, not realizing that, singlehandedly, he has made obsolescent an old bromide about Wooden Nickels. Advice-givers every-where would be wise to update their information.

This item was sent to Chips Editor by Norm Boughton, whom had recieved it from a coin dealer whom he had purchased woods from at a coin show. Dave Morice a IOWMC member OKed using in Chips. Dave hopes to exhibit his woods at the Chicago A.N.A. It is a great wood project.

The item along with copy of some of the Artice Woods copy was published in the "UNIVERSITAS" The Magazine of the Saint Louis University * Automn, 1990

 PRESIDENTS MESSAGE ***

A Happy Easter to you my friends. May you all have a nice day with your family and friends. For those that have not paid their 1991 dues by April 1st they will be dropped from the membership list. So if you haven't paid yet Toni Cichy our IOWMC Secretary would like to hear from you. She will appreciate your help on this.

While your sending in your dues please let our Secretary or Editor know the last four numbers of your zip code. Its not me but the post office use all nine numbers, so lets help the post office out. It is supposed to get your mail to your door even if completely unreadable.

As far as I know I'm feeling better and I hope to go to the A.N.A. Convention and plans are being made for our IOWMC meeting for Saturday at 11 A.M. Hopefully we get that day so members can make their plans. So I hope many of you folks can come.

I hope many will make wood for this 100th anniversary of the A.N.A. as this should be a big year for this. I know many will exchange with others or will swap or sell later to our members. You can let the Editor know on this.

I haven't heard from anyone that would donate little things for our free baggies. If no one helps out on this then we will drop this idea to. I know I would donate some thing so if anyone wants to help please let me know.

The ones who do complain never help our club any how. So I'm asking for your help. I did get a call from Barbara Izzo that she would send me some wood she has, so this makes two things we would have for the free bagies. If you want to help on this let me know or send what you may have or can pick up from a bank, store or anyone that may like to let others know of them.

Wayne and Virginia Dennis is still in charge of our IOWMC auction and the door prizes they will be mailing tickets to our members to buy. Lets all help our club out as all proceeds will go to the club. So when they call for your help, lets all help them out. We need all your help as this all helps the club and makes it possible to keep dues down.

We also need your help on nominations. All offices are needed. We need some good working officers who really want to help. Please don't take the job in name only. As I know some take on a job and thats the last anyone hears from them. All officers are to help the club out. So far we have two good workers running for office, but need more. So if your asked to run please help us out. The work is not really that hard if all the officers stick together. So don't complain later run for office now as we need good officers. If we don't get anyone for any certain jobs, we will call for nominations from the floor at the meeting.

Thanks again to those that have sent cards and letters as a great help to me. I'm doing a lot better and hope I stay that way. Just have to be careful. Now its time to get busy.

I guess this will be all for now. Lets all help each other and make this a good year for our club. God Bless You All.

Sally Kirka - President I.O.W.M.C.

DEAR MEMBERS: We are well into March and the Editor has been notified of nearly 75 members that has not paid their DUES. A addressed envelop will be included in with the March issue TO ONES I HAVE NOT RECIEVED DUES FROM - PLEASE RESPOND AS SOON AS POSSIBLE so you will remain on the clubs roster. With the raise in postage, we can not afford to carry members not paid. I am particulary interested in the members that the NYSWMS transferred into IOWMC. Please drop me a post-card if you do not intend to renew. After serving eight years as Secretary, I hope that you will support Robin Quinn whom has offered to run for the position.

Have an enjoyable Easter - Toni Cichy,

Members of I.O.W.M.C.

I wish to thank all my friends for their lovely Christmas greetings and explain why they have not heard from me.

The later part of the November I returned from my local Historical club meeting and while in the process of preparing dinner became faint and about an half hour later found myself in a pool of blood. Managed to crawl to the phone in my dining room to call the ambulance to take me to our local hospital emergency room. I was bleeding badly from a cut on back of my head after striking the edge of my counter top.

Was in Emergency about five hours as they had to take stitches in back of my scalp which I had cut when I hit my counter top. Lost considerable blood and had to take things easy during the holidays.

My daughter and son-in-law from Binghamton came to be with me during Christmas and my son and daughter-in-law from Long Island were with me a week during New Years. Have been quite weak during this ordeal but am lucky enough to have many neighbors and friends come in and check on me. A retired nurse who worked at Nestle Co. when I worked there as a secretary lives in the next block and she also stops by every day to check on me. Am -ust now begining to resume my usual household activities and just wanted my many friends in the orginization to know I had not forgotten them and hope they all had a very happy Holiday Season.

INSCRIPTION CANYON near Prescott, Arizona

Petroglyphs can be found throughout the world wherever stone has been available to people who were there. Some people mistakenly refer to petroglyphs as "rock art," assuming them to be purely art without message. However, Native Americans creating and using them refer to them in their various tongues as "rock-writing." Our modern alphabet evolved out of picture-writing, so there is no confusion in this among knowledgeable people.

Regardless of our labels for glyphs, their function is to convey information and they do.

Inscription Canyon is located on private property about 20 miles northwest of Prescott, so it is not a tourist attraction. There are hundred of petroglyphs there, representing at least four cultures. One of the cultures dominates the sacred canyon with prayers for rain via depictions of the rain cycle, rain signs, rain serpends, plus a shaman invoking rain. Colorful veins of stone undulate up the canyon walls, the veins in a spiritual sense being rain serpends living below the canyon floor where they rise up as vapor and ascend into the sky where they roil up the clouds, create thunder and lightning, and bring down rain. They return with the rain below ground, there to repeat the cycle endlessly. Since there has been scant rainfall in the U.S. Southwest since 1200 A.D., which caused many people to move out of the region, it is not surprising that those who remained or who came later expressed concern over water, which was a crucial need. The series of vertical lines on the reverse of the wooden dollar are samples of some of these typical rain signs. (The rain cycle petroglyphs were explained by LaVan Martineau leading exponent of petroglyph decipherment, who was adopted by a Paiute family as a child and later married into the tribe. He is the author of an increasingly popular book about petroglyphs and their decipherments entitled The Rocks Begin To Speak, now in its third printing.)

The 1991 Wood announces the Prescott Coin Club's 17th annual coin, stamp, and sport card show on June 21-23 (blk.) Also depicts some of the Indian ("petro"-stone;"glyph"-picture-word; "petroglyph" picture-word on stone) printed in (brown).

The woods are available for 25¢ each plus a SASE from: Sandra Wolf, P O BOX 233, Dewey, AZ 86327. (52¢ postage for 3 or 4)

The "Wooden" nickle?

When I first saw a wooden nickle I thought they were silly.
 Just plain brown and round not lacey or frilly.
 Saying nickle upon them, thinking I could use it as money.
 The ice cream man wouldn't accept it he said
 "I'm sorry honey".
 Seeking their purpose I had confided in my Pop.
 He showed me a shelf where they were piled to the top.
 So he pulled some down, as I sat on the floor.
 Showing me one's from places I never heard of before.
 Some of them had pretty pictures and some of them had names.
 Some of them had colors but none were the same.
 "Grandpop". I said, "What are they for?"
 "I'm trying to understand but I'm still not sure".
 Pop's reply was, as if I recelect.
 They do have a purpose They're just to collect.

"Johnny Cake Hill"

Corner of Union and Bethell Streets, the buildings in the foreground which were over 100 years old were the property of Mrs Hetty Green (the Witch of Wall Street). The street was made of cobble stone and the transportation was horse drawn wagons or carriages. The building on the corner housed a restaurant for ladies and gents.

The Bourne Whaling Museum is now located on the hill where the row of houses stood. The museum was dedicated in 1916.

The four buildings along Union St. were destroyed by a gas explosion and fire on January 18, 1977, which did minor damage to the Bourne Whaling Museum.

Willcox, Arizona  Rex Allen

Willcox is located in the Northern part of Sulphur Springs Valley that cuts through Cochise County for nearly 100 miles, and averages over 15 miles in width.

The heritage of Wilcox covers a broad spectrum. Fray Marcos De Niza in 1539 and later Coronado had a large Spanish influence in the early days with the missions and settlements. The 1600's were the era of Father Kino.

Indian raids and uprisings troubled the settlers. The Chiricahua Apaches roamed the land and by the mid 1800's had driven out most of the early settlers.

In the late 1870's, Southern Pacific built a railroad across the valley and a new era had begun. In 1880, a construction camp for the railroad was called Malley. Later, that same camp was renamed for General Orlando B. Willcox who was commander of the department of Arizona in charge of Military Operations against the Apaches.

With the coming of the railroad, Willcox became "The Cattle Capital of the Nation". It was also a very violent era, with railroad construction crews, Apaches, train robbers, cattle rustlers and gun battles between ranchers and homesteaders, but continued to grow under protection of Ft. Grant with its soldiers, including a black troop.

The Cochise Visitor Center and Museum provide information about the area's history. The center was opened in 1972 and presents a history of the area from the Ice Age Man through the Spaniards, Apaches, U.S. Cavalry and ranchers to modern time. Nino Cochise who says he is the grandson of the Chief Cochise, is a resident of Willcox.

Willcox is also the birth place of famous TV, movie and rodeo personality, Rex Allen. Rex Allen Days are held on the second weekend of October, featuring a parade, rodeo, and concert by the up and coming entertainer Rex Allen, Jr. With the atmosphere of an "Old West" weekend.

The Rex Allen success story began in Willcox, Arizona where Rex was born on Haskell Street, and when only a few weeks old his family moved to Mud Springs in the Winchester foothills northwest of Willcox, Arizona.

It was a long way from the life of a ranch boy who branded calves, built fences and learned to ride before he could walk, to world fame and become known as "Mister Cowboy" from Willcox, Arizona.

It could almost be a fairy tale, the story of Rex Allen, "Mister Cowboy." The little freckled-face boy from a poor family, grows up, achieves stardom, but has never forgotten where he came from, and that is Willcox's favorite son, and the kind man he is.

When Rex was in his early teens he had already made his debut at the State Cattlemen's Convention and acquired recognition throughout the state as the young cowboy with the amazing voice. His high school music teacher entered him in a state wide contest, and Rex walked off with first place. Offers to play and sing came to him from all over the state.

Upon graduation Rex turned to the rodeo circuit and blazed through the excitement of the rodeo for the next two years. Riding with the best. As a sideline Rex would sing and play his guitar for his fans. He soon realized that his heart was in music and singing was his first love. Leaving the thrill of competition behind, he began the long rough road to becoming a star. He finally landed his first professional singing job in Phoenix, Ariz. on radio station K.O.Y. March of 1945, a talent scout realized how talented Rex was and he was summoned for an audition on the famous Barn Dance Show on Radio station W.L.S. Taking only a few months to become one of the biggest stars in the history of the show.

His singing career led to recording stardom motion picture fame, and his own television series, "The Frontier Doctor", and carried the medical bag from a real frontier doctor, Doctor Wilson of Willcox, Arizona. He has composed and published over 300 songs.

The title "Mister Cowboy" was not a publicity stunt, but one of respect bestowed upon him by the people in the sport arena of rodeo, theater owners, fair managers and his fans.

For over 25 years Rex has returned to his home town to participate in the festivities held in his honor. His windswept ruddy complexion, blond hair and blue eyes on a 6'1" frame, bring waves of admiration from his fans as he rides down the streets of Willcox, Ariz.

In 1979 a wooden nickel was issued for Rex Allen days and were available through "The Chamber of Commerce of Wilcox, AZ.

THE DALA HORSE

(Dalahäst)

The Dala (daw-la) Horse is the most typical folk art of Sweden. It takes its name from the province of Dalarna where it has been a popular form of domestic art since the 1840's.

Traditions vary in giving credit to woodsmen and to soldiers for originating the craft. It is certain that long winter evenings with little to do, coupled with the availability of wood scraps from the furniture-making trade of the area, bred the development of the Dala Horse.

The first Dala Horses were plain wood, created as toys for children.

They first appeared in their familiar bright trappings in the mid-1800's.

At that point the Kurbit, or flower patterned saddle, was regularly added to the Dala Horse. These designs are derived from the Biblical story in which Jonah sat outside the city of Ninevah and the Lord caused a Kurbit, or gourd vine, to grow up beside him to protect him from the desert sun. The popularity of the horse has been uninterrupted as the skills for creating the Dala Horse have been passed from generation to generation. It epitomizes one of the only "living" traditions of Sweden.

It seems appropriate then that the Dala Horse was selected by the City of Lindsborg as the symbol of their Swedish heritage. The practice of using a Dala Horse at the entry of homes, bearing either a greeting or the family surname, was begun in Lindsborg by local craftsmen in the early 1960's.

Lindsborg, KS. has been having a (Midsomardag) Midsummer Day to celebrate the coming of the summer solstice. This year it will be held on June 15, 91 in Swonssons Park where folk music, dancing arts and crafts are on the program of the Swedish old country.

Admission is $1.00 in the form of a Wooden Krona and entitles one to the various festivities including a choir from Sweden called Manokoren Harmoni, and a group of Lindsborg students who perform Folk dances. Swedish costumes are much in evidence at all festivities.

The address is C of C Lindsborg, KS., P O Box 191, Lindsborg KS 17456-0191. Woods are available at $1.00 from 1985 to present and use a distinctive emblem. (Ted Wolverton)

* PRESIDENTS REPORT ****

Now that Easter is over, Mother's Day is on the way. So Happy Mother's Day to all the mother's and sweethearts in the club.

First I would like to say I'm glad to hear that Mayme Scott our editor's wife is feeling better after her eye operation. So I hope your feeling better and doing well. I also recieved word that Adam Fritzal, 18920 Wilton Place Torrance. CA. 90504-6118 is in the hospital . So our prayers go to you both and Get well soon. Send that card to our sick members.

We are slowly getting a few members to run for office so we may have the ballets sent out. If we can't get anyone to run we will vote for the same one's at our meeting in Chicago. So we hope to get someone for all offices. If you want to run, let us know. Please don't take a job in name only. It's not a hard job but we need someone who will help a little.

Let's all help Virginia Dennis out when she asks for donations for door prizes and her husband for wood for the auction. They really work hard to help the club so lets all help them when you are asked. They make the money for the club so our dues won't go up. When you get the tickets buy some as it all goes into the treasury. We need everyone's help.

Only one at this writing has donated wood for the give away bags. If we don't get more we will give up this idea. As only Barbra Izzo sent the wood. One other person said they might but haven't heard anymore. I have not heard from one officer on this. If you don't want this it's alright by me. So open up and let the sunshine in.

Now I hope many will come to the meeting as it is the 100th Anniversary of the A.N.A. so alot of things will be going on in Chicago. If you have a wood made, a good chance to exchange with other members. Lets have fun at the A.N.A. convention as this is a fun year for all. As for me I've been rallying my own coins for twenty years and I already have a die made for myself of a coin for this convention. It won't take long to roll the coins just have to get busy. I also will have a wood made to for this big event.

As far as I know I hope to go to the convention and hope to be there. So if my health holds out I'll be at the Chicago 100th anniversary convention.

Those that want a room can write to the A.N.A. Housing Bureau, Rosemont O'Hare Convention Bureau, 9291 W. Bryn Mawr, Rosemont, IL 60018. The room rates are Hyatt Regency (S) $82.00 (D) $92.00, Holiday Inn (S) $58.00 (D) $68.00, Howard Johnson 2 miles away (S & D) $45.00. If any one else has the price of other Motels or good hotels, let our editor know. It will help all that wish to attend.

Lets all get behind our Club to have a good year at the convention. May the Good Lord help us to have a nice time at our meeting. So hope to see and meet many of you there.

May God Bless You All - Sally Kirka - President I.O.W.M.C.

Editor Note: Several members have already made reservations at the Motel 6, 3 miles from the Airport and on a direct road to the Convention Center. A resturant close by. Address is Motel 6, 9408 W. Lawrence Ave., Schiller Park, IL 60176. Phone # (708) 671-4282. Cost is $32.95 for one person $6.00 additional plus tax aprox. $2,50 per night.

1991 - IOWMC BENEFIT DRAWING

Once again, I have accepted the Chairmanship for IOWMC Benefit Drawing Project. This project helps to defray the club expenses, which increases yearly. This year we were hit hard with the postage increase. In addition this project has helped to prevent any increase in our membership dues.

We must start working on this project now, as we leave town early to visit friends and family along the way before arriving in Chicago for the annual meeting. Your past cooperation has been great and I know it will be the same this year.

(For General Information---the mail bid, Lot #1 (complete set of Ken Hedden's woods) brought $38.75. Successful bidder was M. G. Goecke. Bidding was heavy for the cans and match book covers---all lots were sold. The auction for left over items in 1990 brought an additional $67.75. Thanks to all members who participated.)

All inquiries and donations for the 1991 IOWMC Fund Raising Project should be sent to Virginia Dennis, 1852 Golden Shadow Drive, Henderson, Nevada 89015, by July 6th.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

From time to time I receive woods which lack information for my collection or I want to know more about the wood. I started a list for woods which had the name of a town on them and took it to the Chamber of Commerce. They gave me the address for the towns on my list which had a Chamber. I then mailed out letters with an S.A.S.E. asking if they knew of the coin club or festival I needed an address for. Many times I've received what I had requested or a contact to write to for it. Most Chambers are staffed with folks who have good knowledge of their towns and enjoy the challenge of trying to help if they don't know.

I took some of my wood collections in to my local Chamber of Commerce after setting up a meeting with it's director and told her of my hobby and how I might need their help from time to time. This contact alone has given me leads to festival's and centennial's that they come to know of and pass the information on to me. If your looking for such help then try your Chamber, and if you don't for now then make contact with them for a later date. It's a great source to get help.

Woodly yours, Robbin Quinn IOWMC #1712

WOOD'S MONEY

Wood's Money was the name applied to coins issued in 1722 by Great Britain for the American Colonies not because they were made of wood, but because they were made by Manufacturer William Wood.

The coins were made of metal similar to brass in the two pence, pence, and half pence series. The obverse was stamped with the head of George I and the reverse with a double rose from which projected five barbed points and the legend "Rosa Americana Utile Dulci, 1722."

WOODEN POSTCARDS FROM THE ST. LOUIS WORLD'S FAIR WANTED -- I am interested in buying 1904 world's fair woods or in trading other (non-wood, non-exposition) exnumia, such as elongates tokens, encased coins, medals, ect., of all sorts. I have 2 different modern Tenino wooden nickels--both are unique error pieces with wrong reverses--which I'll trade too. Also interested in any information on the Wooden Postcards of the Fair. Question: When were wooden postcards first made, and are they the precursors of the flat wooden nickels?

Wooden Nickels of Museums and Tourist Attractions of N Y State
by NORM BOUGHTON

Many of us who have collected woods for a number of years have either had to go to new collections from the officals we started with, be content with adding a piece to our collections a few times a year or lose interest in woods completely.

To avoid the latter, I have started several diverse collections of woods to keep up my interest, among which is a collection of woods from museums and tourist attractions in New York state. While I know I dont have them all listed here, I will list what I know. Got some I havent listed? Please send photo copies, trade or sell them to me.

(Some people dont agree with me as to what is obverse and reverse on woods. I believe the obverse is the side that tells what the piece is about and the reverse is the side with the buffalo, indian, etc.. In officals the obverse may be the side with the design unless it dont tell you where the piece is from. Dont like this way? Fine do it your way. Please dont write your Congressman though. Too many foolish laws now.

CHEEKTOWAGA, NY Historical Museum 1982.

I have one piece that is brown on obv and black on rev. The other is brown both sides.

OBV. CHEEKTOWAGA, N.Y./HISTORICAL MUSEUM/top arc. Building in center. Preserving Our/Heritage/1982/flat at bottom.

REV. WOODEN NICKEL/top arc. Indian facing left all enclosed in circle.

COOPERSTOWN, N.Y. Farmers Museum.

Four differnt pieces known here. All black both sides.

COOPERSTOWN, N.Y. Woodland Museum. Black both sides.

OBV. WOODLAND MUSEUM/top arc. Copperstown, N.Y./bottom arc. Buffalo facing left in center.

DEANSBORO, N.Y. 13328 The Musical Museum. Black both sides.

OBV. THE MUSICAL MUSEUM/top arc. Deansboro, N.Y. 13328/botom arc. GOOD FOR/ONE/ADMISSION in center.

OBV. HOWE CAVERNS/top arc. NEW YORK/bottom arc. Buffalo facing left in center.

LEGEND OF THE LOST DUTCHMAN

Somewhere in Superstition Mountain is the lost mine that has become a legend of the West  beckoning the adventurous since the 1850's when Arizona was still a part of Old Mexico.

It was first discovered accidentally by the young lover of Rosita Maria Peralta when he fled into the mountains to hide from the wrath of the girl's father. But Don Miguel Peralta soon forgot his anger when the youth returned with stories of a mountain of pure gold. A small army of men, wagons and mules was hurriedly dispatched by Don Miguel to find and plunder as much of this fabulous wealth as possible. The journey of some 200 miles to the mine was a hazardous one  there was the constant danger of attack by murderous Apaches, thirst, sudden storms the exhausting heat of the desert. One expedition returned with unheard of quantities of the precious ore. Out of the last caravan of 400 picked men, only two boys lived to know the location of the mine.

In the 1870's "Old Snow Beard" appeared on the Arizona scene. Jacob Walz (some times called Walzer) was a German immigrant then in his 50's. While crossing Superstition Mountain, the wandering prospector happened by chance upon three Mexicans who naively showed him their "Mountain of Gold." The crafty old man repaid their trust with coldblooded murder, shoving their bodies into a canyon. Then began the trail of gold, greed, hate, suspicion and murder  and the legend that to the present day lures the adventurous to Superstition Mountain in search of the secret the wily Dutchman carried to his grave.

To this day the Indians believe that the God of Thunder inhabits the mountain and rules there without mercy. It is generally believed to be uninhabited.. but whence come the mysterious bullets driving searchers away, the destruction of the seekers' camps, the poisoned springs?

Superstition Mountain is good for centuries of mystery. The secret of the real location of the mine went to the grave with the Dutchman, and his spirit still laughs in derision at the efforts of modern prospectors.

Maps of the area may be had for the purchase. Gold seekers have gone into the mase of canyons with supplies and equipment, firmly believing that this time they too would view the "Mountain of Gold." Some have returned, starved, weak from thirst, supplies gone and spirits broken. But many have not returned...

The warnings are many and firm: Beware! Strange disaster stalks this awesom place. The trails are menacing, the canyans deceptive, the hardships primitive. The Lost Dutchman Mine still slumbers in its infinite impregnability... protected perhaps forever by the stronghold provided by Nature itself.

 Continued ***

It is possible that some day a lucky "tourist" will set out on a modern day adventure and stumble upon wealth beyond his wildest dreams, destroying forever the ghostly laughter of the violent and greedy old man who was, and still is, the legend. It might be you ...

Editors note: Sets of 4 different colors were issued in 1978/79/80/81/82/83/84 and 1985. Some may still be obtainable from Mark as well as other AZ. and PA. wood issues. Address - Mark Wildasin, 800 Randolph St. #36, Hanover, PA. 17331

Dear Members: It is with deep regret that I have instructed our Editor Walter Scott to drop 76 Members from our membership list because of non-payment of dues. With the raise in postage the club can no longer afford to keep delinquent members until they get around to paying. I hope that many of our members plan to attend the ANA Convention and issue a wood to exchange with other ones attending. Happy Memorial Day. Toni Cichy - Secretary

 HELP NEEDED  President Sally Kirka appointed Walter Riley as the award chairman for the past year. Walter would like suggestions from the membership on whom they think should get the award for LITERARY and OUTSTANDING MEMBER for IOWMC 1990/1991 year. KANAKALU the Hawaiian Wallabies
Hawaiian Endangered Wildlife
By: Charles Matsuda

Australia is known for many of the species of animals found in other part of the world. There are many types of Marsupials which includes the Koala Bear, the Tasman Devil, Wallabies and the Kangaroos and as strange as it may seem one of these animals live in Hawaii on the island of Oahu only.

According to the story in 1916, a local business man kept Brush-tailed Rock Wallabies imported from Australia as pets. Wild dogs chase eleven of them into the mountains of Kalihi Valley. There is another story that in 1916 an animal dealer had a pair of Brush-tailed Rock Wallabies that escaped captivity after being sold to a local dealer in Oahu. Never-the-less these Brush-tailed Rock Wallabies exist in Oahu and are able to breed successfully on the Koolau Mountains of Kalihi Valley. The Wallabies, also called Kanakalu in Hawaiian, stand about two feet high and are gray-brown in color making them very hard to see, matching the rocky slopes of the vally cliffs.

The wallabies are endangered, not only in Hawaii, but in Australia as well and should be protected. Many of them are killed or harassed by man or domestic dogs. Housing developments and the likelike highway that passes through the valley has also made the survival of this species almost impossible in HI.

The reverse of the wood features a native Hawaiian shrub found only in Hawaii called the Ohe Naupaka. These species of plants are found only in the very wet forest of Oahu or Kauai, growing with a long light marigold yellow tubelike flower, with a guava like green fruit. The leaves are smooth and tough and in a good wet growing area, it can develop into a fine healthy tree.

To order your wooden tokens, send 25 cents per token and a SASE to Honolulu Coin Club, P O Box 6063, Honolulu, Hawaii 96818. (printed in brown)

First IOWMC member wood issue for the 100th A.N.A. Convention. Walter Riley reported other members can obtain the same design and have their name and other set-up put on the rev. Order from Louis Berkie, (Elbee Co.) P O BOX 230, SAN ANTONIO, TX. 78291

Happy Fathers Day to all the fathers of IOWMC. May you all have a nice day with your family.

All the names were sent in to our Editor of whom is running for what job in IOWMC. So as far as I know we have some one running for each office. The ballots will be sent out with the June issue so we all get the ballots in time to vote and return our ballot. I want to thank all that are running for office and the best of luck to them all.

Not much plans for our meeting at the ANA Convention but I'll do the best I can. Can't get anyone to help. We will do away with a few things for lack of interest by all.

As far as going I'm doing my best to go to the convention but it depends on my health to, I'll sure try. Things just aren't going good for me. I came home the other night and as I opened the door I triped and I thought I broke my leg. Then the U.P.S. came and was leaving that I had to run after him. Then a dog bit my toe and I mean bit it, its still swollen but hopefully getting better. Then about five minutes ago I got word of a death in the family again. We were expecting this but sad when it happens just the same. Better days have to come.

I hope many of you make it to the convention as lots of things planned by the A.N.A. No I won't make all as I have plenty of meetings to go to myself. The IOWMC. Meeting will be on Saturday about 11 A.M. So hope many of you can make it. With the good Lord willing I'll see many of you there.

The main hotel is right next to the convention hall and we don't even have to go outside. Theres an over head walk from the hotel to convention hall that helps a lot. So not to far to walk. We meet in the lobby almost every night so if you care to visit and talk come and join us as we love to have you. Thats the fun of the convention is seeing all my friends again.

I have made a coin for this but now have to get busy and roll them out. So I'll do this the first chance I have. Its the IOWMC logo on the die.

Well about two months and we will be greeting each other at the convention in Chicago. I hope I see you there. God Bless You All.

Henry Huttleston Rogers once remarked to his close friend, Mark Twain, "My rule in business is to get the money in hand."

It was a rule from which he never deviated - from his boyhood years as newspaper carrier for the New Bedford Evening Standard, clerk and delivery boy for the Union Grocery Store, baggage master for the Old Colony Railroad, to his founding, when he was 21, of his own oil refinery in Pennsylvania and, eventually, his presidency of six of the 20 companies of the Standard Oil Trust and vice-presidency of 13.

Seldom in the annals of New England history has one man placed his stamp so indelibly on his native community. First of all, he graced the town with handsome buildings - Rogers Grammar School (1885), the Millicent Library (1893), the Town Hall (1894), the George H. Taber Masonic Lodge (1901), the Unitarian Memorial Church (1904), the Tabitha Inn (1905), and Fairhaven High School (1906).

TOMBSTONE, ARIZONA

Once the mightiest city between El Paso and San Francisco, was founded by Ed Schieffelin in 1877 and was first known as -- Goose Flats.

Remembering the somber prophecy given to Schieffelin, and with tongue in cheek, they changed the name to Tombstone in 1879.

The year 1881 was an eventful one for the mining camp. With a population of 6,000 rivaling both Tucson (County seat) and Prescott (Territorial Capital).

The Earp and Clanton feud culminated in the famous gunfight at the OK Corral. A disastrous fire burned out much of the infant town, but it was immediately rebuilt.

"The Town Too Tough to Die" really deserves its name, for there is something quite extraordinary about everything that ever happened in Tombstone; about every one who came to Tombstone; about the creation and continuing development of Tombstone.

Even today Tombstone prospers, not just as a historic city with a civic mind and spirit that lets you know that even today Tombstone is still "The Town Too Tough to Die." Tombstone does not live in the past alone, just as in days past, the best is just the usual.

No visit to the Southwest is complete without a visit to Tombstone, and it would hardly be the proper way to visit Tombstone without starting at Fifth and Allen Streets, once the most ruthless, noisiest, bloodiest intersections of the world.

That was back in the early 80's when the dust around this corner was often wet with blood of miners, cowmen, gamblers and gunmen. You are standing in part of the Crystal Palace Bar, looking across the street toward a low, brown hill, scarred with houses and toilings of deserted mines. So much silver came out of this hill was called "Loma de Plata" or "The Hill of Silver."

Men had plenty of money in their pockets and the best was none to good, and Tombstone could offer the best that was to be had anywhere, even San Francisco. Tombstone had class which belongs to it alone.

But you can't stand in one spot all day long, so the best thing to do is to make the round and take in The Bird Cage Theatre, Old Courthouse, O.K. Corral, Old Fire House, Oriental Saloon, Wells Fargo Office, Schieffelin Hall and Monument, the Million Dollar Stope, World Largest Rose Tree, Tombstone Epitaph and a dozen other places.

Tombstone is a town hallowed with ghosts and memories such as few American towns possess. Here Western Frontier history was made; a colorful, romantic, yet tragic history, unparalleled in any books. The history of Tombstone is one of the great American legends, for, nowhere did color and romance mingle more riotously than here.

MARYLAND WOODS

By: Edward Lee Craig
MD TAMS LM #22

I am attempting to resurrect the old Maryland TAMS Journal series on Maryland Woods that was previously written by Mr. Stanley Brown.

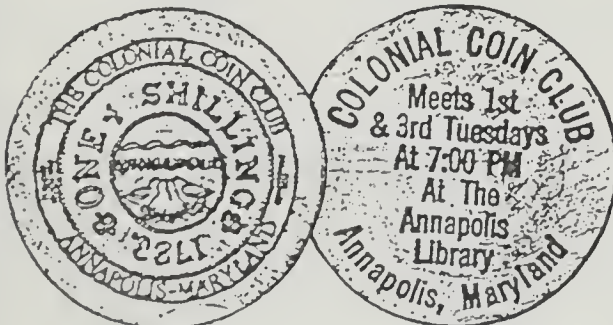

Several Maryland TAMS meetings ago I volunteered to take over the production of this continuing series of articles.

This is the first in that series. I intend to follow the earlier format which reviewed the Woods by city. I will try not to duplicate any Woods described in the earlier articles. As I review my current holdings by city, I would appreciate your input on Woods that you have in your collection that do not appear in my city list. Thanks to a friend and fellow collector from Texas, Mr Leo Warren of San Antonio, I have enough Woods to keep the artical series going for a while; but I will need your help and cooperation. At some point in the future, if we get good input, we may be able to produce a simple Maryland Woods master listing and attribution guide. Enough administrivia -- let's get on with the Woods! The cities to be covered in this initial article are: Aberdeen, Annapolis, Arcadia, and Arbutus.

 PRESIDENT MESSAGE ***

Well its almost time for me to say good-by as President to all my good friends. My two year term will be up soon and a new President will take over and hopefully as Past President I can be of some help to him. I had a rough time health wise so for me it will be nice to relax more.

I want to thank all those that have helped me through out the two years. I also want to those new friends I've made. I never got over that call I got for Christmas saying happy Birthday to me. It was the first call I ever got from Canada and one I'll never forget. So thank you John Brennan. All I can say is Santa didn't really forget me. Not many are born on Christmas Day.

I also want to thank the few that sent me a few things as many didn't want to bother with this. I do feel bad at some who should help the President but didn't want to help. Anyhow this is about my last report as later I will just be a Past President of IOWMC.

The President wood has been ordered and the woods are to be sent to the Editor so they can be sent to members in Bunyan's Chips. I did as I was told.

It was very pleasing to hear that over 100 of our members to date sent in a ballot to the election committee. It shows a interest in our club "Thanks".

I still don't know if I will go to the convention but I'm hoping I can make it. So far getting ready to go. Lets hope my health holds out as had a rough year. As I'm a Veteran I now go to the VA. hospital and get help there quickly. Anyhow I can't walk as fast as I used to but I hope I make the ANA. Have cane will travel if I can.

I'll make this short. I still want to thank all my friends that have helped me in any way they could. We all need friends and God gives this friendship free to all of us. God Bless You All.

BEFORE MESA, AZ.

" The HOHOKAMS "

The first human inhabitants of the Mesa area were members of a prehistoric desert farming culture called HoHoKam (a Pima word meaning -- "Those who have gone.")

The HoHoKam may have been descendants of the earlier Cochise culture. The ancient Cochise were food gatherers who inhabited southwestern New Mexico and Arizona from about 8000 A.D. to 500 B.C. From this relatively small corner of the Southwest, the HoHoKam culture developed and spread, until by 1400 A.D. it covered most of that part of southern AZ. from the Mogollon Rim on the north to the Mexican border on the south, a large part of southern New Mexico, and parts of northern Sonora and Chihuahua.

In this area of nearly 49,000 square miles were scattered the communities of two distinct groups of HoHoKam. The river HoHoKam inhabited the river valleys of the middle and lower Gila, the lower Salt and the lower Verde. The vast desert region extending south of the Gila River was occupied by the semi-agricultural and food gathering Desert HoHoKam.

The river HoHoKam were settled along the Gila possibly as early as 300 B.C. Their way of life was based on desert agriculture. Because the semi-arid desert region of southern AZ. is not suited to dry farming, the HoHoKam first planted their crops on the lower river terraces where they depended on the periodic flooding of the Gila to irrigate their fields. The Salt River at this time was only sparsely settled, since the character of the river did not lend itself to flood plane irrigation. However, sometime between 500 and 700 A.D., the idea of canal irrigation was either borrowed, or independently developed, thus making the fertile desert around both the Gila and Salt Rivers available for farming.

Now that the resources of the Salt River Valley could be more fully utilized, there was a population shift from the Gila to the Salt between 700 and 900 A.D. Mile after mile of irrigation canals were constructed to bring water to the parched land. The whole color scheme of this valley began to change as bright greens of cultivated fields replaced natural browns and yellows of the desert. During the early part of 1920, the surviving canals of the ancient project were measured and found to have a combined total length of over 150 miles. At one time there may have been between 200 and 250 miles of canals here in this valley, making the ancient irrigation system the largest of prehistoric North America.

Scattered through this vast network of canals were 22 large, and small, communities. The houses of a HoHoKam village were constructed of poles which were covered with brush and then plastered with mud. As a rule, the floors of these houses were depressed below the surrounding area. Since there were no windows, these structures were dark inside and, therefore, most of the everyday activities were carried on outdoors. A ramada (a shade supported on post) stood near every house and here such tasks as making pottery, weaving, grinding corn, and preparing meals were carried out. Cooking took place over pits.

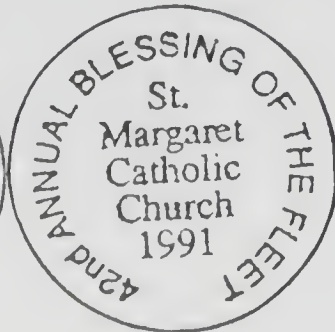

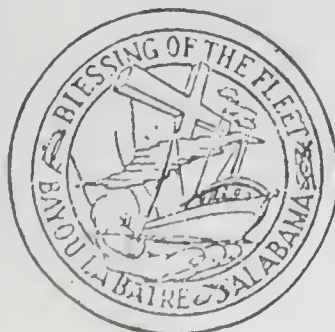

In the prehistoric Southwest, the River HoHoKam was surpassed as a farmer. With his system of irrigation canals he was able to raise moisture dependent plants in an alien environment. His flourishing fields included maize, jackbeans, "lima" beans, kidney beans, tepary, amaranth, at least two kinds of squash, gourds, cotton and possibly some variety of the nicotine plant. In Arizona today, many of these same plants are cultivated by the Pima and Papage Indians. Not only did the HoHoKam raise domestic plants for food, he also harvested a long list of wild foods. Beans were obtained from the mesquite and yellow paloverde trees and the catclaw bush; buds and fruit from such cacti as the saguaro, cholla and prickly pear were used; acorns were gathered the agave plant was roasted; and various roots, tubers, bulbs and nuts were collected to add spice to his diet. Many Indian groups in the Southwest still take advantage of nature's bountiful desert harvest.

Animal bones recovered from trash mounds show that HoHoKam satisfied a desire for meat by hunting a large variety of desert animals. His taste was not as selective as ours, for his list of edible animals included various reptiles and rodents as well as fish, birds, rabbits, peccary, deer and bighorn sheep. This is suggested by the abundance of his bones in the trash, and by the occurrence of his likeness carved in stone and modeled in clay.

The life of the River HoHoKam in the Salt River Valley was not always as untroubled as it would seem. Especially towards the end of their occupancy of this area, the last 140 to 200 years, life must have become increasingly more difficult. The consolidation of sprawling villages into compact compounds, surrounded by walls, suggests war or threat of war. Perhaps groups of nomadic peoples, newcomers in the area, were finding it easier to raid the HoHoKam for food, than to compete with nature by hunting and gathering. Perhaps the HoHoKam were experiencing some form of internal unrest.

Other difficulties encountered by the HoHoKam--such as salt erosion of wall bases, moisture problems in food storage, and waterlogging of fields--were the direct result of their vast system of canals. Modern valley residents have encountered these same problems which result from excessive irrigation. The situation along the Salt River did not improve. Unable to relieve the waterlogged condition of the land, and under constant threat of war or raid, the HoHoKam began to move out of the valley. The exodus was probably gradual; the people were returning to the Gila. By 1400 A.D., the Salt River Valley had been completely abandoned.

 PRESIDENTS MESSAGE ***

Sorry I though the July issue of Chips was our last issue for the summer. Our Editor told me theres one more issue befor our meeting in Chicago.

I still would like to thank those that have helped me as it was really appreciated by me. I was very disappointed in those that did not help me as I asked a few. Yet not much I can say as everyone has problems of their own. So sorry about this.

My Presidents Days are coming to a end but for me I can relax then. I am like many others having my health problems. I'm hoping I can go to the A.N.A. convention and know Walter Riley will help me if I can't finish up. My doctor said not to go but I want to go. So I hope to make it but still a big if. I do have cane so can travel or so I hope.

We will have a new President and I think he is a good worker so good luck to who ever reins. Its just my luck I had a bad year health wise. Now time for me to relax some. I do belong to many clubs and officer in many but I'm trying to give up all and just relax.

Lets all work hard for the club and the new President. If you can help, please do so. We have a good club so lets help our club out.

Now God Bless You All and I hope to see many of you at the convention. Tank You for letting me be your President for the past two years even if I wish I could have done more. Yet going in and out of the hospital didn't help me much. Again God Bless You All. Your friend from Connecticut.

Sally Kirka - 10WMC President

IN MEMORIAM

Sgt. Omer F. Noel 10WMC #287
July 13, 1991

The Officers and Members of 10WMC. extend our sincere Sympathy to our truely missed members family.

Omer F. Noel

MIDDLETOWN — Omer F. "Tex" Noel, 87, of 18 Rosedale Ave., a police officer at the Naval Education Training Center and Salve Regina College, died Saturday at home. He was the husband of Jessie (Me-deiros) Noel.

Born in Martue, Belgium, a son of the late Felix Joseph and Marie Leonie (Lambert) Noel, he lived in Middletown since 1947, previously living in West Warwick.

Mr. Noel was one of the original security guards at the Melville Fuel Depot in 1940, transferring to the Melville Net and Fuel Depot in 1942, as a first class rigger and heavy equipment operator; there, he received the Navy secretary's Ordinance Award for exceptional performance in preparing anti-submarine and torpedo nets. He also had assignments at the Naval Supply Depot and on the Naval Base Police Force. He retired in 1963 as a police sergeant.

A Marine veteran of World War II, he served in the Second Nicaraguan Campaign. He was a drill instructor at Parris Island, S.C., and San Diego, Calif.

He assisted in organizing the campus polce at Salve Regina College in 1968, retiring as a lieutenant in 1970.

He was a graduate of the Rhode Island State Police course conducted on the Naval Base, and studied atomic, biological, and chemical warfare courses.

A pianist, he played in several silent movie houses and with several orchestras.

He was a member of the National Police Officers Association of America, the National Association of Retired Civil Employees, the National Riflemen's Association of America, the New England Numismatic Association Inc., the Newport County Coin Club 66, the International Organization of Wooden Money Collectors and the Pioneer Wooden Money Society.

Besides his wife, he leaves three sons, Leon O. Noel of Idaho Falls, Idaho, Roger A. Noel of West Warwick, and Maurice J. Noel of Providence; three stepdaughters, Beatrice Valliquette of Fall River, Mass., Evelyn Morretti of Palm Bay, Fla., and Lorraine Woodkirk of Galesburg, Ill.; nine grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

The funeral will be held Wednesday at 9:30 a.m. from the Memorial Funeral Home, 375 Broadway, Newport, with a Mass of Christian Burial at 10 at St. Lucy's Church, West Main Road. Burial will be in Newport Memorial Park.

WOLCOTT, NY HELP WANTED!

Once again I am stumped. For years I have believed that Wolcott, NY issue of 1960 had two different reverses for part of the set. My most recent catalog lists some colors with an Indian rev and some with a covered wagon reverse. Recently Wade discovered two pieces of the same color with the two different reverses. Does this mean that this is actually a ten piece set, instead of the five pieces we always have thought constituted a set.

Please check your sets and let me know what you have?

The listings in my catalog are: Violet & green with Indian rev. & blue, black & red with covered wagon reverse.

If yours differ from these color combos please let me know. Thanks. Norm Boughton, 1356 Buffalo Rd. Rochester, NY 14624.

YORKTOWN, VIRGINIA

OBSERVED 300th BIRTHDAY

Yorktown, was founded in 1691 eight years before the founding of Williamsburg when the Virginia General Assembly passed the act for Ports and Towns.

Yorktown, observed its 300th birthday with events held from a Friday thru Sunday with festivities that included sailboat races, a firework display, a naturalization ceremony, patriotic concerts and a parade.

"This is an effort to get people to realize that Yorktown played a significant role in our freedom," said Patricia Hannum, executive assistant to the York County administrator. "There's more to Yorktown than just the battles that were here. We have a place that has produced statesmen and been the gateway to Virginia."

In the mid-1700s, Yorktown was the largest seaport between Philadelphia PA. and Charleston SC. Tobacco was exported and cargoes of slaves and European goods were imported for the Colonies. Well-known mercantile families, such as the Lightfoots and the Nelsons (Thomas Nelson was a signer of the Declaration of Independence and governor of Virginia in 1781) lived among the 1,800 residents of Yorktown in impressive brick town houses on a bluff overlooking the York River, and stores, taverns and warehouses dotted the waterfront, or "common shore."

The center of Colonial tobacco production shifted westward to the Piedmont region after 1750, however, and most shipping business followed. Growth gradually slowed in Yorktown, and then, in 1781 Charles Cornwallis and his British redcoats came to town.

"When Lord Cornwallis decided to occupy and fortify the town in the summer of 1781, he started a series of events that eventually resulted in the Yorktown campaign later that year," said Edward Ayres, historian for the Jamestown-Yorktown Foundation. "At the end of the siege on Oct. 19, 1781, the allied American and French army had won a great victory over the British, but more than half the town had been destroyed during the fight."

"Although Yorktown survived the Revolution and siege," Ayers said, "it never fully recovered."

In the past two years, however, Yorktown officials have been looking beyond recovery to restore and expansion. Architects are developing a master plan for the city and major changes, such as a river walk, amphitheater, and a tobacco wharf are being considered.

"This is not intended to be another Williamsburg or Baltimore Harbor but the idea is to preserve the character and scale of the town and make it a place to live," Williamsburg architect Carlton Abbott, who is working

--- Continued --- with Sasaki and Associates of Washington on the plans, explained last year. Ayres said: "I think it's a politically divisive issue but there are limits to what can happen, Yorktown can never become another Williamsburg because the Park Service owns much property. The Park Service preserves, but it is not interested in a Williamsburg-type of restoration."

The 300th birthday celebration was not designed to advertise imminent changes in the town, according to John Carl, public information officer for York County. Community volunteers planed the party, and it was coincidental that the city's 300th fell at a time when the town is experiencing growing pains, Carl emphasized.

But the birthday festivities and the focus on Yorktown should help local officials accomplish their most important goal, Carl said. "We want to make sure we take care of this national treasure where the American independence was won."

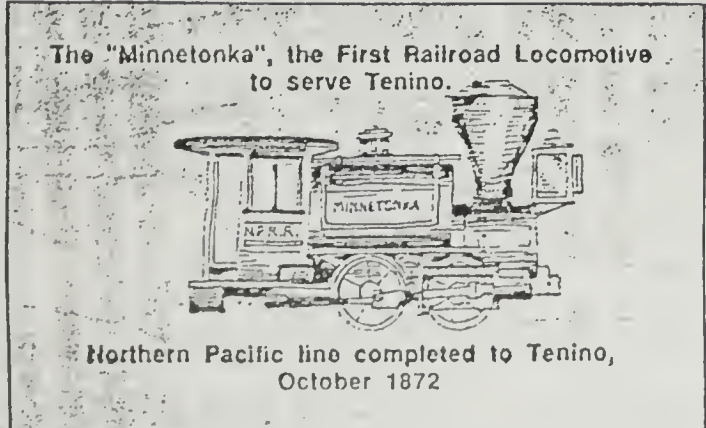

Wood shown was in July/August Chips. A very small supply remains. A donation is appreciated.

DEAR MEMBERS, I would like to put together a current wood buying guide for use by our membership and new members who join us. What I need is for everyone to send me a current address you mail to for buying wood that's put out yearly. The month in which they are for sale, cost and when the series was first issued and I'll put together the guide and have it printed up. Each who sends me the information will recieve their copy free. Our monthly news letter will be used so you can add and-or change your listing. This way it will be kept current and up to date by the user. How long it will take to complete this task will depend on all of you. All it will cost is some of your time and 29¢. Please help me to improve our collections and give new collectors a head start in what it has taken many of you years to compile. We've listings for woods we've missed, now let's have one for woods we can add to our collections. I beleive more woods would be issued if folks knew their are clubs willing to buy them yearly.

Thank You, Robbin A. Quinn - 10WMC #1712

PRESIDENTS MESSAGE --- From: E. Ted Wolverton

To all those members who did not make the ANA and Wooden Money Meeting, you really missed a lot.

I wish to thank my good friends Lou Vesh and his lovely wife Yvonne for his help in setting up my display and her for being so patient. "Woodchuck" Warnstedt for the woods he donated to give away and the Oak Park Coin Club for the donation towards the cost of taking the display. The P.W.M.S. also made a contribution toward that also.

Thanks to each and everyone who helped make the 10WMC meeting a success by donations of wood ect. for the auction and raffle. With out your help we would not be able to hold the dues at $5.00 a year.

When the NYSWMS desolved and reverted their funds to 10WMC it was stipulated that the DeGilio Award to a Junior Member was to be continued. This was not done last year or this year, so I am appointing Norm Boughton as Chairman of that Comittee. If you know of a young wood collector who may be eligable, let Norm Broughton know.

Norm will also be the new Portrait Chairman, PLEASE all you new or even old members send him a short resume of yourself and collecting habits so everyone can get to know you better. Also a picture of yourself if possible.

Toni Cichy will remain the clubs Historion, so send her News articals that has been published. Pictures taken at Wood gatherings, such as ANA meeting and discribe ones pictured on the back. Such goes into our history books.

Ken Paulsen is the New Wood Issue Chairman and any help given him will be greatly appreciated as knowing of issues is what our hobby is all about.

Robbin Quinn the Secretary, will be the New Membership Chairman keeping rec-ords on who gets the most new ones and who will recieve the award.

I will be calling on others in the future so do all you can to help our club grow. Get a new member. There will be an incentive to do so soon I hope. Try give a talk to a Coin Club or any organization you belong too, it doesn't have to be elaborate, just tell why a wood was issued and why you collect ect. Its a lot easier then you may think and a lot of fun.

The Don Major and Literary will be Walter Scotts dept.

Good Luck & Good Pickings, Ted

An old item returned in a recent letter. A member could not figure what was ment by a "Wood Flat" and concluded it must have ment a flat tire. Over the years it has been a questionable item in our hobby. The "Guide Book of Wooden Money" uses the term "Oblong". Lets go to the Dictionary - Oblong: deviating from a square or circular form through elongation, A: rectangular with adjacent sides unequal, B: rectangular with the normally horizontal dimension the greater - Oblong. So I decieded Oblong meets our hobby as a flat has many terms, mainly anything just plain Flat. We do have many other shapes of woods in our hobby as tonsil sticks and just obtained a oblong made from tooth picks a art project by Dave Morice. How many coin collectors know that Nickle is a U.S. 5 cent piece and Nickel is a metal, as per Websters 7th edition "New Collegiat Dictionary ??."

Scotty

The meeting of 10WMC was called to order by Walter Riley as President Sally Kirka was not feeling well. The club met in the Rosemont Convention Center, a suburb of Chicago. Riley called for a minute of silence to commomerate the 6 members that died during the 1990 - 1991 club year.

Norm Boughton led those in attendance in the Pledge of Allegience to the flag. John Wilson, Chairman of the Conv. welcomed the club to the 100th Anniversary of the ANA, and hoped that our stay in Chicago would be a happy one.

Walter Riley introduced the Officers of the club and then asked each member and guest to stand up and give their name and state.

A motion was made to dispurse with the minutes of the Seattle Convention since minutes are always published in the Bunyan's Chips. Motion made by Virginia Dennis and seconded by Toni Cichy. Motion carried.

Treasurer Report was given by Treasurer E. Ted Wolverton. We have $598.45 in Checking --- $1,283.93 in Savings --- $2,766.00 in Life Member Fund, for a Total of $4,648.38. The money has been forwarded to the new Treasurer. The report was accepted.

Old Business: No 1990 President wood was obtained and moved that one would be ordered and sent to each member .

New Business: As a member of the 1891 Club, 10WMC recieved a 2 volumn History of the ANA. A motion was made to offer the books in a mail bid with the bid to start at $85.00 since the set originally cost $165.00. Motion carried.

The Board of Governors recommended that Norm Boughton be given Honorary Life Membership #36. Motioned carried.

There was a discussion concerning the need for an updated Wooden Money book to update the cost of woods. Norm Boughton, the former chairman, announced that this was a huge job to go back to 1976 and account for all the woods that has been issued since that time. He did agree to meet with those interested after the meeting.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE: The following members were elected in our mail ballot: 135 ballots returned. President - E.Ted Wolverton 132, 1st Vice Pres - Albert Bonesio 127, 2nd Vice Pres. - Denver Howard 127, Secretary - Robbin Quinn 130, Treasurer - M. Wayne Dennis 132, Board of Governors - Norm Boughton 2 years - Virginia Aldridge 4 years and newly elected Ken Paulsen 6 years. The report was excepted as read.

AWARDS CHAIRMAN -- Walter Riley presented the awards. MEMBERSHIP:1990 Virginia Dennis - 1991 E.Ted Wolverton, LITERARY:1990 William Pike - 1991 Mark R. Wildasin, OUTSTANDING SERVICE:Clinton B. List, DON MAJOR: E.Ted Wolverton. The Past President's Award: Sally Kirka 1990 - 1991. Special Awards: Dean Hart, Ken Paulsen, Toni Cichy, Norm Boughton, Virginia Aldridge, Walter Scott, Virginia Dennis, Coin World, Numismatic News (Alan Herbert), Glenn Rodgers-Pres. APWMA, Al Bonesio-Pres. DWMC, Robert Brown-Pres. PWMS, Ron Nobbs Pres. POWMT, Frank Kozma, Louis Berkie, Gene Nelson, Virginia Dennis, Ken Palsen, Ray C. Wade, Norm Boughton, Florence Rebello, Herman Krajewskiaand Kazuma Oyama.

The new OFFICERS were swarn in by Walter Riley, Past President. Mr Riley expressed his thanks for another successful year and to all those members that helped make it so.

The meeting adjourned at 11:30 AM and a lively auction and raffle followed.

Respectfully Submitted by: Toni Cichy --- for Robbin Quinn, Secretary

OUR NEXT ANNUAL MEETING WILL BE HELD IN ORLANDO, FL. ORANGE COUNTY CONVENTIGN CENTER - AUGUST 12 - 16, 1992. Start making your plans to attend.

Our newly elected 1st Vice Pres. Al Bonesio had a very unwelcome visitor after arriving home from the Windy City. Regret to report extensive damage was done to his home by the hurricane.

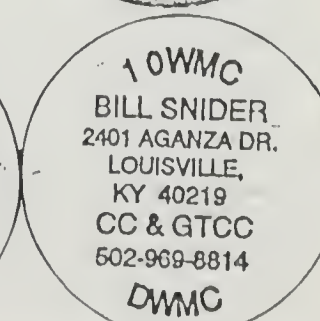

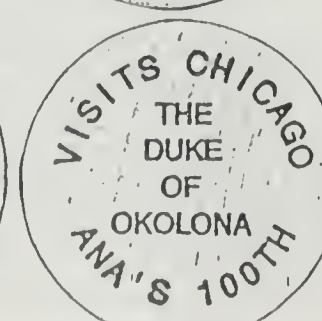

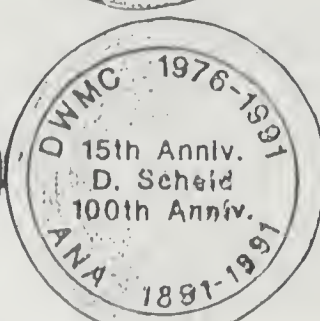

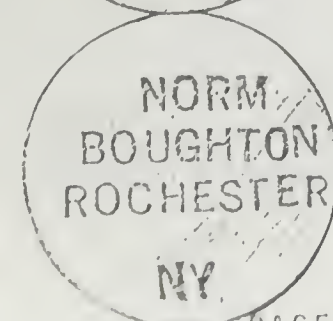

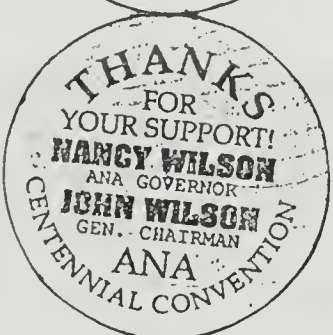

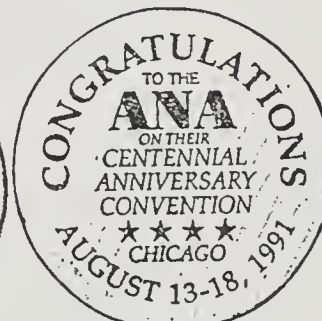

Ron Nobbs reported he'd recieved word that Tom King was very ill. A wood was was signed by some members attending our meeting and sent to him.

A Brief History of Tenino

By Art Dwelley

piece of Tenino, Wooden Money

The first settler on the site of Tenino was Stehen Hodgdon, a native of Maine who had come west in 1849 with the California gold rush. Failing to strike it rich, he came north in 1851 and took up a donation land claim on the banks of Scatter Creek. His land was located directly on the old Oregon Trail at the point where it turned north to Tumwater and the Hudson's Bay Company trail continued eastward to Yelm Prairie and to Fort Nisqually.

It wasn't long before the Hodgdon Farm was referred to as "Hodgdon's Station" and became a regular stop on the stage coach road from the Columbia to Olympia. Soon Samuel Davenport took up an adjoining land claim to the west, and B.F. Hennessy settled on the east side of the present townsite.

Stephen Hodgdon became the area's first postmaster, taking office in 1860. The surrounding area at that time was called "Coal Bank" after a ledge of coal on Blumauer Hill, and the post office bore that name until 1873.

In 1872 the railroad from the Columbia reached Hodgdon's farm and a station was built and named "Tenino". It was the beginning of a settlement that later grew into the Town of Tenino. There is much speculation about the origin of the name, with stories that it was named after a railroad locomotive with the number 1090, or a survey stake with that designation marked on it. According to the railroad archives, neither of these tales is true. There is considerable evidence that the name preceded the railroad and is of Indian origin, meaning 'a branch in the trail' or 'meeting place.'

With the railroad came the first retail business, a store operated by Fred Brown. Brown had moved along with the railroad construction crews in a tent store until reaching Tenino and apparently decided this was a good place to settle down. Joining the depot and the store to form the nucleus of a town was a hotel owned and operated by William Huston. "Uncle Billy" became well known far and wide for his hospitality and for the fact he kept a barrel of whiskey on hand for thirsty travelers. Billy sold two brands at the bar at 15¢ and 25¢ per shot, but both came from the same barrel.

The little settlement was pretty quite for its first few years, with the majority of its commerce coming from farmers around the area and the

--Continued-- fact that it was Olympia's closest connection with the railroad. Two stages a day between Olympia and Tenino made connection with trains going to Tacoma or Portland.

Being cut off from the railroad did not set to well with the Olympians and they began to promote a narrow gauge line from the territory's capital to Tenino. After much trouble and delays the branch line was finally completed in July of 1878. Originally built by the Thurston County Railroad Construction Company, the line was renamed the Olympia and Chehalis Valley Railroad in 1881 and ten years later became the Port Townsend and Southern Railroad Company.

The additional railroad line gave Tenino another boost, but it was 1888 before the community really began to grow with the founding of the first sandstone quarry. S.W. Fenton and George VanTine located a good grade of building stone on the hill south of Tenino and began an industry that changed Tenino from a sleepy little whistle stop to a bustling town.

VanTine and Fenton's Tenino Stone Co. was located on the site of the present city park and pool, and began shipping stone out in 1889. A second quarry soon followed east of town on the Military Road, and was called the Eureka Sandstone Co. A third quarry was located on Lemon Hill west of Tenino in the early 1900 by H.P. Scheel and William McArthur under the name of the Hercules Stone Co.

Stone quarrying became Tenino's major industry until the market began to die out about 1915-20, with concrete replacing stone as a major building material. Some of Tenino's quarries operated as late as the 1930's, but only on a limited basis. As the stone quarries prospered, so did Tenino, and by 1890 the population was up to 390. By the early 1900's there were more than a thousand people and Tenino was termed "a real boom town" by old-timers. Adding to the commerce of the area were a number of logging companies and mills. In Tenino itself was the Mentzer Brothers Mill and the Jonis Spar Co., and just south of town was the Skookumchuck Mill.

By 1905 Tenino had four grocery stores, two meat markets, a half dozen saloons three hotels, two dry goods stores, two livery stables, two doctors, a laundry, a newspaper, a drug store, and a variety of other stores, including jewelers, cigar stores, confectioners, and even a stationer.

The quarrying business in Tenino got a shot in the arm for a time when the Hercules Co. began supplying stone for breakwater projects at Grays Harbor. Rock was supplied from the "Hercules #2" plant on the Military Road and from a quarry on the Skookumchuck River about 3 miles above the present dam. Unfortunately, the project was cancelled with the outbreak of World War I.

Following World War I the area's boom began to slow down, and Tenino's population dropped as quarries and several mills closed. Logging and farming became the major economic factors in the area and Tenino settled down to being a trading center for the south central part of the country.

In the 1920's there were a number of attempts to drill for oil around Tenino and there was much speculation in oil stocks. As one after another failed to produce oil, the enthusiasm cooled and finally died out completely. Sporadic drilling has been done since that time, but none successfully.

The "Great Depression" hit Tenino as hard as most other areas of the country, but did manage to make the town famous at the same time. As the "Home of Wooden Money", Tenino hit the front pages of newspapers all over the world, was mentioned in the Congressional Record, and drew reams of other publicity. "The Wooden Money" scheme grew out of a Tenino Chamber of Commerce plan to issue the emergency scrip to relieve the money shortage caused by the failure of The Citizens Bank of Tenino. The original scrip was on paper and was given to bank depositors in exchange for assignment to the Chamber of up to 25% of the depositor's bank account balance. Shortly afterward, the scrip was printed on "slicewood" of spruce and cedar, and immediately became famous as the original Wooden Money. Eight issues were printed between 1932 and 1933 with a total of $10,308 of the Wooden Currency put into circulation. It became a collector's item and only $40 was ever redeemed by the Chamber.

Through the 1940's and 1950's Tenino's main claim to fame or infamy was a certain notoriety for being a "speed trap" on the old Pacific Highway. Regardless of whether the reputation was deserved or not, the traffic problems on Tenino's main street were considerable in the post World War II years.--Continued--

--Continued-- Until the opening of the new freeway in 1954, more than a few of Tenino's businesses were oriented to serving the traveler and a number of them closed after the freeway opened.

The 1960's saw Tenino begin to take part in the growth that had begun to be felt in the Puget Sound country. No definite upsurge was noticable but once the town was growing in population. In 1967 a announcement was made of the proposed building of a thermal-electric generating plant in the Hanaford valley south of Tenino and the re-opening of the once active Tono coal fields. The plant went into operation in the fall of 1971.

Tenino's growth continued through the 1970's with the southern part of Thurston County becoming one of the state's fastest growing areas. The building recession of the early 1980's slowed that considerably, but Tenino is again growing and looks forward to the future with well over a hundred years of history already behind it and confidence in the years to come.

 PRESIDENTS MESSAGE ***

The last 1/3 of the year is upon us and now is the time to spend with your hobbies, so think WOOD. Order your Xmas, personal, ect.

This is also the season for flu, colds & other illness so everyone prepare and take care as it is always sad to hear of illness.

It was sad to hear of the loss of Glenn Rome and our deepest sympathy to Audrey his wife and family. Glenn did a lot to promote wooden money.

It was also sad learning of the loss of Mary Plasterer as she and her late husband John played a big part in the formation of wood clubs.

To all that have lost a loved one our hearts go out to you and all that are ill our prayers for recovery.

A plan for new membership woods was approved by the board and is being looked into having woods made up for this contest. It will be explained farther when we have the woods and rules are drawn up. Think of someone you can sign for 1992 and win a special wood.

Untill next month Good Luck and Good Pickings - Ted Wolverton

GLENN ROME PNNA LM 41 10WMC A861

It is with sadness, I report the loss of Glenn Rome on July 24, 1991. Glenn suffered, and was homebound, the last three years with emphysema. He retired from the Boeing Company, after 32 years, shortly after his diagnosis.

Glenn was an avid numismatist as signified by his club membership in: The Pacific Northwest Numismatic Association; The Boeing Coin Club; Seattle Coin Club; Manhattan Coin Club; University Coin Club; Token and Medal Society; Northwest TAMS; Canadian Numismatic Association; American Numismatic Association; I.O.W.M.C.; Tenino Wooden Money Society; and the Montana Historical Society. He probley belonged to others that we failed to mention. As you can see he was a joiner and was not scared of the work involved whenever he joined. He was an officer in most of the organizations to which he belonged. At one time he was an A.N.A. District Delegate.

He was born in Livingston Montana and he and his wife Audrey 10WMC #769 came to Seattle, just after his oldest daughter, Maryann was born. He was very heavy into genealogy and produced a newsletter for all the family members. This in addition of his family print shop, located in his basement. He used to design medals and many Logo's - The P.N.N.A. logos' and medals' being some of them. He used his computer to the fullest with all of his hobbies, including the numismatic research he loved to do.

We will all have many fond memories of GLENN. My most vivid memory is: when I was President of PNNA and still able to walk, we had a board meeting at my house. Les Copan and Glenn were among the attendees. After the board meeting was over, we all played Ping Pong way into the night. It had started to snow, and if anyone knows my drive way, you don't go out of it when it snows. As it got toward morning, we all decided that we would go bouling. We all did and the snow kept getting deeper. Needless to say, we would have a Kitten Tizzy if our kids tried the same thing. We were all well grown adults, but we had fun.

-- Continued -- Glenn is survived by his wife, Audrey Ann; his children, Maryann, Linda, David, Yvonne, Glenn Jr, Gerald, and three grandchildren. He will leave a large void amongst his numismatic friends. We will all miss him.

Marge Farnam 10WMC #1543

Editors Note: Marion Beardsley #LM20, suffered a stroke at the Chicago A.N.A. and was unable to attend our meeting. She remained hospitalized for a week before released. Phone call to her found her doing A-OK. Take care Marion.

Past Pres. Sally Kirka reported the loss of Mary Plasterer Sept. 18, 1991 and that TEC Secretary Ginnie was killed in a auto accident on their way home from the ANA convention Aug. 30th. Her husband Don was seriously injured also. Don had rolled connorative elongates for Numismatic News at the event.

Few members my know that two of our 10WMC members are involved with writing childrens books Jerom Remick and Dave Morice. Both will miss Dr Seuss.

PIONEER WOODEN MONEY SOCIETY IS STILL ALIVE AND KICKING

At our recent picnic on September 15, 1991 several letters were read from our delinquent members who recently paid their dues under our new leniency program. It seems that some of these people have been told that PWMS was dead and buried and that they should not bother to pay their dues. This is not true. When we meet for our Christmas banquet on Nov. 10, 1991 it will be the 4th time this year that we have met. And a news letter has been sent out to each paid-up member within a few weeks of each meeting. DOES THIS SOUND LIKE A CLUB THAT HAS FOLDED UP? We welcome back any delinquent member that wishes to re-join as well as any new member who wishes to join PWMS. Our dues are $4.00 for adult members; $6.00 for a married couple; and $3.00 for a junior member. Anyone wishing further information on PWMS can contact our Secretary/Treasurer - Sara I. Elliott at P.O.BOX 3864, Harrisburg, PA. 17105 or me at P.O.BOX 124, Highspire, PA 17034.

Recently Chappell's Department Stores which has a branch in the Salmon Run Mall, Watertown, NY. Kicked off Earth Day using a Wooden Nickel as their vehicle. Any customer who brought their own bags for their purchases was given a wooden nickel worth 5¢.

A customer could apply their wood towards their purchase price at that time, they also had the option to accumulate them for future use, or apply them towards an environmental cause sponsored by the store.

Their Wooden Nickels are available for two for 25¢ plus a SASE. From: Northern New York Coin Club c/o, Howard R Ferguson, Secretary, 181-183 E. Main St., Watertown, NY. 13601-2030.

The Saskatoon Coin Club has issued a 1½" rd. wood to mark their 30th Anniv. Coin & Stamp show on Oct. 26/27, 1991. The obv. shows an outline map of Saskatchewan with a prairie lily. The city of Saskatoon is marked on the map and the N. & S. Saskatchewan Rivers are shown. The SCC wood cost $1.00 each or 3 for 2.00 and 10 for $5.00 the Herb Bieber's issue is $1.50 (all Post Pd.) order from: Saskatoon Coin Club, P.O. Box 7514, Saskatoon, Sask., Canada S7K-4L4 (Jerry Remick)

We recently had a talk at the Harrisburg Coin Club by the Postmaster of the Highspire Post Office about the new mailing system that is now in use. After seeing the videotape of the new machinery in operation sorting the mail it is not hard to see why our woods get broken. The Postmaster advised me to bring my mail to the counter and they will hand stamp any mail that I have with woods in it. This would probably be a good idea for all of our fellow wood collectors to do.

Bob Brown #1731

An issue of your own personalized round or flat Christmas woods is available inexpensively from printers. The woods are a novel form of Xmas greeting which will be appreciated by the receiver, even if he/she is not a collector of woods or coins.

The printers listed elsewhere can furnish woods printed in whatever number or colors and design wanted. Your personal personalat reverse side can include your name, Municipality, province and state where you live, 1991 & a short greeting.

One of your woods can be enclosed in with your Christmas card or sent in place of a card. Woods can be attached to gifts and given personally to your friends and family.

Please place your order early as it takes one or two weeks to print an issue and then maybe a week in the mail.

Universal Signs, 880 Hanwell Road, Fredericton, New Brunswick, Canada E3B-6A3 Phone # 506-453-1104 has 23 stock designs for use on rounds or flats. Flats are on sturdy balsa wood. Cost $1.55@ first 100. Rds. 1½" $70.00 (200)

The King of Sugar and Hawaii's Total Eclipse

Claus Spreckels was a very controversial man. To the islanders, he was felt to be a domineering, ruthless, arrogant, corrupt, egotistical opportunist. Yet this same man had the photogenic features of Santa Claus and contributed a lot to the economic progress of the islands during his period as a business man. Claus Spreckels was born in poverty in the village of Lamstedt, Germany on July 9, 1828. He came to America borrowing passage money from a friend, worked in a grocery store, and later bought the store from the retired owner. Energetic and businessminded, he went from grocery store to brewery, sold it for $75,000 and then went from there into sugar refining in the bay area of San Francisco in 1863.

When the Reciprocity Treaty came into effect in Hawaii in 1876, which gave duty-free entry of sugar into the United States, Claus Spreckels brought Hawaiian Sugar Cane to be refined in San Francisco. Soon he was known as the King of Sugar. He was appointed as agent for the Hawaiian Kingdom to mint the Kalakaua coins. Claus Spreckels is featured on the 5th wooden token of the Famous People of Hawaii issued by the Honolulu Coin Club. The reverse features the Total Solar Eclipse of July 11, 1991. A solar eclipse happens when the moon blocks the sun from shining on part of the Earth. This year the eclipse was total in the Hawaiian Islands specifically the Big Island, Hawaii. The last total eclipse in Hawaii was in 1850 and the next one isn't until 2106.

HCC's 50th Anniversary on the Attack at Pearl Harbor Wooden Token.

The Honolulu Coin Club issued a Special 50th Anniversary wooden token on the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor. The obverse features the Honolulu Star Bulletin news headline on that day of the attack and the damaged ships during the attack. Many stories were written about the attack; the most famous of all was Walter Lord's book on "The Day of Infamy".

The reverse of the wood features the Arizona Memorial with Ford Island in the background and a peaceful scene of a seagull flying over water.

Marion G. Beardsley, 89, of Fulton, N.Y., the Society of Philatelists and Numismatists' Woman of the Year in 1988, died Sept. 25 at A.L. Lee Hospital in Fulton after a brief illness.

Marion joined IOWMC. along with her husband, Harold J. Beardsley, soon after IOWMC was formed in 1964. Harold died in 1978.

She and her husband were avid wooden money collectors and philatelic-numismatic combinations. They wooden money (a lot hand made) to mark the Christmas holiday and the A.N.A. Conventions. Marion kept up the practice until her death.

The couple had also issued woods to commemorate family occasions.

At the time of the SPAN award presented in conjunction with the ANA she had attended 16 consecutive ANA conventions and our clubs meetings. Marion enjoyed taking the tours that the ANA planned at the events.

She wrote numerous stories for our clubs publication over the years. and must always brought candy bars to gatherings from Nestles where she retired from as a secretary.

Marion served as President and secretary of the Oswego Co. Numismatic Society, a member and trustee of the 1st. Congregational United Church of Crist, past matron of Elizabeth Charter 105, Order of the Eastern Star, member of Fulton Women's Club, the Interior Decorators Club and the auxiliaries of the Salvation Army and A.L. Lee Memorial Hospital.

She is survived by one son and one daughter, six grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

The Officers and Members of IOWMC. extend our sincere Sympathy to our truly missed members family.

NOTE FROM VICE PRESIDENT

When ordering wood to day with some costing 50¢ and up, with the postage (2 way) 58¢ plus envelopes the cost is over $1.00. When you receive the wood it is taped with scotch or masking tape. In removing some of the printing comes off and you have a damaged Wood.

It may help to enclose a small note with your wood orders not to do this. Fold over a heavy piece of paper then with wood inside tape or staple it. This note can be on a small piece of scrap paper or the piece of material to send wood in and may help the sender not to tape wood.

The best to all I.O.W.M.C. for the coming holidays. Al. Bonesio 1st.V.P.

NOTICE:

For expediency purposes: please send your 1992 dues and membership applications to the secretary.

Change of addresses should also be sent to the secretary; as well as to the editor.

By doing this, it will save time in getting your membership card and/or your bulletin.

MEMBERS PLEASE CHECK YOUR ZIP CODE IF THE LAST 4 of the 10 DIGITS ARE MISSING OR INCORRECT PLEASE LET THE SECRETARY OR EDITOR KNOW AS IT MAY SPEED UP CHIPS DELIVERY AND MAY BE LESS COSTLY TO MAIL.

SEND INFORMATION ALONG WITH YOUR 1992 DUES. ALSO INCLUDE YOUR BIRTH AND ANNIVERSARY DATES SO ANY ERRORS CAN BE CORRECTED. ROBBIN A. QUINN-- SECRETARY, c/o BOX 153, MEXICO, IN. 46958-0153

 PRESIDENTS MESSAGE ***

Its that time again seems just yesterday I wrote a Presidents message.

We will be having a contest soon for our members that obtain New Members for our club. The awards will be Wooden Nickels spelling out IOWMC. One for each new member or reinstated member you send in in 1992, so get busy and scout around for wood collectors or ones you can interest in our hobby. It will take 5 in order to have the complete set of Woods. When the contest ends the balance of Woods will be destroyed. The club as well as I will give a award to the one that gets the most members during my term as President of IOWMC.

Veterans Day has passed before the time you get this issue of Chips, but lets please stop and take a minute to remember our Vets.

Thanksgiving with all the turkey and trimings is about on us, so give Thanks for all and the wonderful country we live in.

Send Scotty our Editor a story on your specialty in Woods or on any special event in your area, that has issued any Wood.

Our Secretary has been asking help on several projects for the club, so try to help him if anyway possible. GOOD LUCK and GOOD PICKINGS

E. Ted Wolverton - President

DUES REMINDER Just an early reminder that club dues are just around the corner again. I would appreciate it if every one would send their birthday & Anniversary dates in with their dues. Our Editor needs a new listing to check for any errors that might be in the files. I need everyones cooperation to do this. Also, try and bring in a new member or a past member who dropped out of the club. There is a special award for all who do.

Respectfully, Robbin Quinn-Secretary, P O BOX 153, Mexico, IN. 46958-0153

WOULD LIKE INFORMATION on the following wood issues to put in the wood buying guide. Address, Cost and month of issue.

Thanks, Robbin Quinn #1712

 CLUB MAIL BID ***

Two piece set of limited addition books issued by the ANA to commorate their 100th Anniversary. The books belong to IOWMC and it was decided to put them in a mail bid that all of our members would have a chance to bid on them. A starting bid of $85.00 was recieved at our meeting. Selling price was $165.00. Winning bidder to pay $7.23 postage.

SEND BIDS to: E. TED WOLVERTON-Pres., P O BOX 501, Stroudsburg, PA. 18360

The town Water tower, just east of Madison's Corner on the north side, is a landmark visible from New Bedford. The original tower was built in 1893 by the Fairhaven Water Company. Set upon a 75 foot high support based in cement, the tank soared 200 feet into the air. On the afternoon of Nov. 9, 1901, this tower collapsed, spewing 325 gallons of water onto the street & fields below, halting traffic for three hours. The present standpipe similar in appearance but of heavier construction and greater capacity, was built the following year.

The wood printed in blue are 25¢ each plus a SASE. From: C.C. GRTR. N.B., P O BOX 2991, New Bedford, MA 02741-2991.

Endangered Hawaiian Stilt 9th Wood

The Hawaiian Stilt or Ae'o is the ninth wood in the Hawaiian Endangered Wildlife series. The Ae'o is one of the many native Hawaiian waterbirds that is highly endangered. Like most waterbirds, the Hawaiian Stilt make their nests in wetland areas around marshes, mud flats and ponds. Unfortunately, man-made modernization, urban development and other so-called "progress" has destroyed many of the waterbird's natural habitats with land-fills, drains, and pollution. The bird, being very vulnerable to disturbances and predation, nest only where water barriers prevent people and animals from disturbing their nest. Tall and slender in size, the male Ae'o has a black back running from the top of its head down to its tail while the female is brownish. They have long pinkish legs and stand about 16 inches tall. They generally lay about 4 eggs at a time. Being a waterbird, the Ae'o feed on water insects, crabs and fish.

The reverse is a native Hawaiian shrub called the Pukiawe. These plants grow along the mountain slopes. The leaves are small, paddle-shaped and rigid. The shrub also produces a tiny flower that later turns into a cherry-like fruit that is dark red or reddish orange in color.

From the shores of Pearl Harbor:

by Bernard von NotHaus

The National Pearl Harbor Survivors Association announced that they have authorized an official issue to commemorate the 50th anniversary of the attack on Pearl Harbor on December 7, 1941. The official Pearl Harbor "Dala" (Hawaiian Dollar) will be issued in gold and silver proofs from the Royal Hawaiian Mint with national distribution by Silvertowne.

Ken Creese, National secretary for PHSA, explained that since the U.S. Government refused to issue a Pearl Harbor commemorative, his organization was pleased that Hawaii's own Mint with an eighteen year track record of outstanding work could get involved with such dedication. "After all," Creese explained, "no other location could be more appropriate for producing this historically significant issue than where the Japanese planes flew on that awful Sunday morning." He added that, "Although the U.S. Mint might have sold millions, the Pearl Harbor 'Dala' will probably be a better collector's item since only a few thousand will be made."

Mr. Leon Hendrickson of Silvertowne agreed, "I'm absolutely delighted to see an official Pearl Harbor Silver commemorative of this quality." Adding, "I expect it to be a big hit with the silver coin collectors of America."

Bernard von NotHaus, Mintmaster at the Royal Hawaiian Mint quick to point out more reason for collector interest. "First the issue has a reason to be. There is a genuine need for this commemorative, and the Royal Hawaiian Mint has done everything to match and surpass the U.S. Mint products. From sculptured masters, to offering a full ounce commemorative at a lower price versus the U.S. Mint's proposed 3/4 ounce coin. The official Pearl Harbor 'Dala' also comes in the same luxurious packaging used by the U.S. Mint," said von NotHaus.

The Pearl Harbor "Dala" is available in proof silver that contains one full ounce of .999 fine silver. The gold proof set including one-tenth ounce gold proof in .9999 fine gold and a 39mm bronze proof. The first day of issue is set for October 15, 1991, with all orders on first come, first serve filled basis.

AN OVER THE YEARS WOOD ISSUE by SHERWOOD ASSOCIATES

We started "Sherwood" in 1968 as a concept for an activity after retirement. We developed the usual "Business Planing" and in 1974 when I retired from GTE Syvania we started attending Coin Shows. In our planning we wanted something different as a business card that would get away from the usual cardboard ones, and that could have an interest in its own right and could be saved by the recipient. The Wooden Nickel was our choice. To give it continued interest, we decided to buy 1000 of each Roman Numerial. So to give a "rarity" and collectibility to it. We are now about up to XXX. We have many people refer to us at Coin Shows as the "Wooden Nickel People". Yet few of our customers have a full set.

We have had many interesting, beautiful and warming experiences on handing them out. At a show in New Hampshire a man and two very mann-erly teen agers (a boy and girl) stopped at our table, and he started asking me questions about uncirculated copper and zink set of 1982 Lincolns. As I would answer his questions and tell him about the change over to Zink Copper Clad Coins, he would turn to the boy & girl and slowly repeat and explain what I had just told him. This went on for some time and then he said these two youths are here in Salem, NH. as foreign exchange students from Russia. I then welcomed them to Amer-ica and New Hampshire and then gave them each a Sherwood wooden nickel, and told them to take it home with them and they would be the only peo-ple in all of Russia who had a Sherwood Wooden Nickel. They were Very Pleased and Very Courteous. The girl then reached into her purse took something out and said, "You nice, we like, we want you have this".. It was a gold plated pin depicting the "Three Brothers" which are pillars of rock on a seashore used by Russian seaman, as a guide and safety reference. It is beautiful and I was overwhelmed really and wished them well. They remind me of Seurantha Smith and her trips to Russia.

If there was a way for Good teens to exchange ideas and relation-ships they could outdo the politicians in each of our countries on many things of "Relationships"

Well, we've had other experience of beauty with our Wood, but the above was the most unusual and rare type.

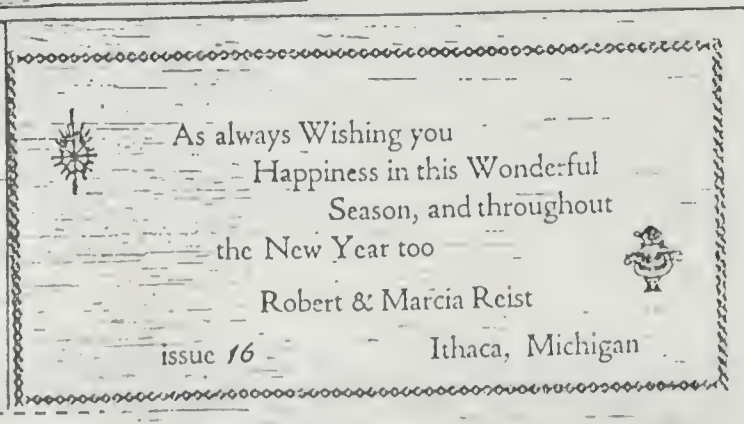

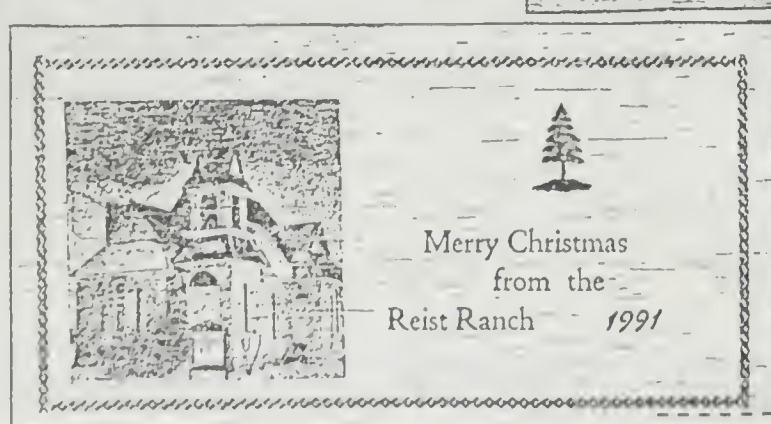

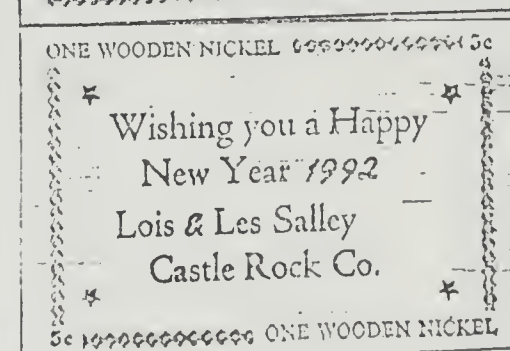

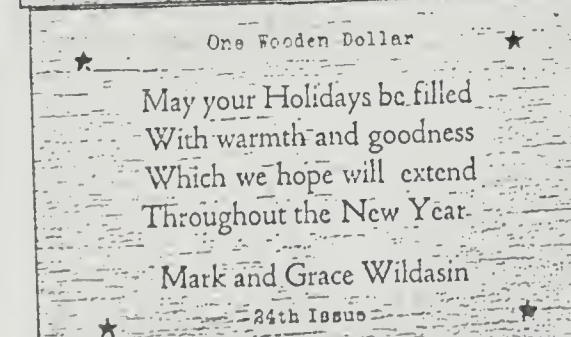

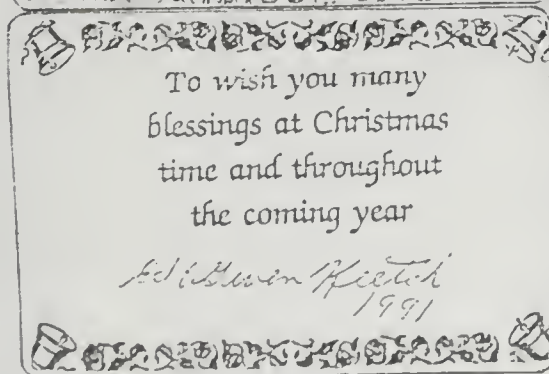

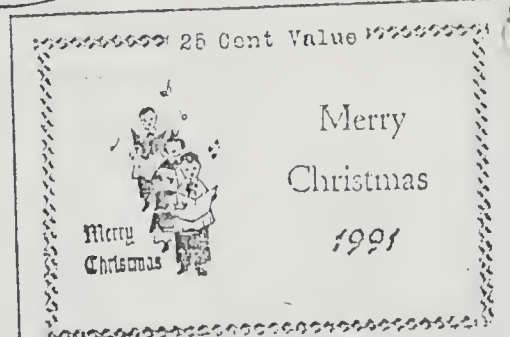

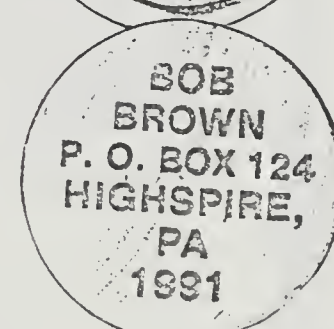

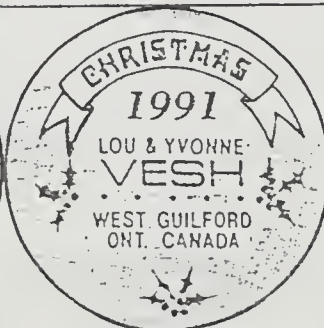

The Hosterman's, Charles & Eunice

 PRESIDENTS MESSAGE ***

Hopefully all our members had a great Thanksgiving with their family and friends. At this writing surely about all are enjoying the festivities of Hanukkah and Christmas the most celebrated holidays of the year.

It is sad that some of our members will find an empty chair around the table and our hearts go out to you's. Most all that departed from us this year were very dedicated to our hobby and will be very much missed by us.

In the first few months of our clubs 1991 to 1994 term it appears that more members are stepping forward to help our club in various ways, such is greatly appreciated. The goal of any club officers is to leave the office proud that the club is somewhat better then when they took office. Truly the more members that pitch in the better our club and hobby will be in the future.

Every year at dues due time all clubs take some loss of membership mostly due to ones having not found a interest in the hobby or have become confused as to what to collect. It is impossible to collect all and by picking out a certain category is best. Holiday issues by members bring them closer together as mostly a little note is included. Official issues have been considerably scarce and all our members help is needed to check their area anniversaries and the various festivities to see if a wood has been issued. find out how they may be obtained, address and cost, ect. and let our editor know. A wood or a copy of it is nice yet the information of its release is sufficient. Some collectors obtain extra in order to sell them to other members. One member only collects woods related to News Papers (a rarity) last Chips showed one with a news paper that most likely will fill a spot in his collection. Coin Club issues are the most common and it is quite a job keeping up to them unless one only collects from certain areas. A few collectors like transportation, buildings, art work, flowers, ect. Restaurant issues, especially "Sambos" were popular and due to closing down and Scouts chopping many up for mulch collectors turned to Dairy Queen and other chain companies. All collectors say "TO EACH HIS OWN" when it comes to collections.

Our Membership contest is under way so that anyone obtaining new members will receive a special wood award. As soon as they are obtained they will be shown in Chips with the rules for the contest. So talk to friends, even re-instated members will count. More Later. The project was a suggestion by our new Secretary, Robbin Quinn and approved by the Board of Governors..

Again, Sincerely Wish You and Yours the best for a Joy Filled Holiday and that you get off to a Great Start in the New Year.

Good Luck and Good Pickings

E. Ted Wolverton - President

1992 DUES ARE DUE

Dues have been coming in daily for over a month and if you wish to renew early then send them out. Let's not forget I need your birth date, wedding anniversary, and your full ZIP code. I've been spring cleaning my collection and have 64 woods I'd like to give away to a good home. No official or semi official but still good woods for free. I've picked a number between 1 & 100 only editor knows what it is. When sending your dues write down your guess and the nearest one will receive the woods. I will pay the postage. Robbin Quinn, Secretary, P O Box 153, Mexico, IN. 46958-0153.

PORTRAITS - Pres. Wolverton has appointed 2nd V.P. Denver C. Howard, 6440 Fairfield #305, Fort Wayne, IN 46807, Chairman of the Portrait committee. Others serving on the committee are - Norm Boughton, Toni Cichy & Marge Farman. Any cooperation given them will be greatly appreciated. Send in yours.

Tom King #697 one of our dedicated wood collectors has been in the VA Hospital Nursing Home Care Unit, 2615 East Clinton Ave., Fresno, CA 97303. Tom greatly appreciates hearing from the many of us that have written him over the years. Take a little time to drop him a card or note. Due to poor eyesight he is unable to write. Perhaps his son will place a note in Chips for him. Son reports he's in little pain and still has his wit and sharp sense of humor going strong for him. He did love his hobbies. -----

Being an enclosed bridge, the memorial spans the sunken remains of the battleship Arizona without touching any part of the ship. The memorial is 184 feet long and varies in width from 27 feet at the center to 36 feet at the ends. Its height varies from 14 feet at the center to 21 feet at the ends. The memorial is divided into three sections: a museum room; an assembly area which can accommodate 200 people for ceremonies; and a shrine room which contains a marble wall listing the names of "The form, wherein the structure sags in the center but stands strong and vigorous at the ends, expresses initial defeat and ultimate victory.

"Wide openings in walls and roof permit a flooding by sunlight and a close view of the sunken battleship eight feet below, both fore and aft. At low tide, as the sun shines upon the hull, the barnacles which encrust it shimmer like gold jewels . . . a beautiful sarcophagus.

"The overall effect is one of serenity. Overtones of sadness have been omitted to permit the individual to contemplate his own personal responses . . . his innermost feelings."

Alfred Preis, Architect

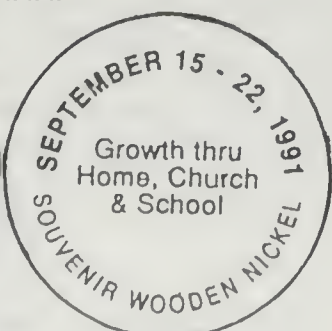

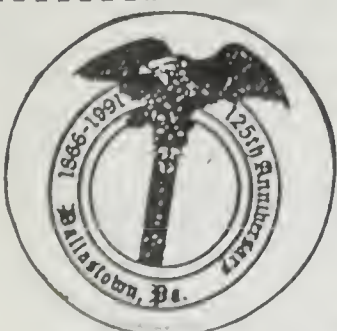

Arizona's 1,177 crewmen killed in the December 7th attack. The flagstaff, which was temporarily relocated during construction, is mounted on a portion of the battleship's superstructure and doesn't touch any portion of the memorial itself.
